Our Lady of Mount Carmel

On one side of the mountaintop, the priests of Baal stood next to the stone altar dedicated to their false god. They had been praying aloud all day, but no god had answered them. On the other side, the prophet Elijah stood alone next to a stone altar dedicated to the Lord God, Yahweh. That day Yahweh sent fire from heaven onto the altar, proving that he, Yahweh, was the one true God. The Old Testament records this showdown on Mount Carmel in Northern Palestine (1 Kings 18:16-39).

During the many centuries between that event and the year 1156, people who wanted a quiet place to pray and to live close to God began to come together on Mount Carmel. A large monastery was built there to honor the Mother of God. The members of the monastery were called Carmelites.

In 1251, according to the tradition of the Carmelites, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to Simon Stock, the sixth general, or person in charge of the Carmelite Order, and gave him a scapular. The scapular was a ling piece of cloth worn over the shoulders and hanging, in front and in back, down to the ankles. After that, all the members of that Carmelite community wore scapulars. Today some religious men and women still wear the full scapular. Some people wear a small scapular made of two small pieces of cloth connected by narrow cord or braid. It, too, is worn over the shoulders. Wearing a scapular medal or the shorted scapular is a way of honoring the Blessed Mother. July 16 is a major feast for all Carmelite priests and sisters.

Saint Lawrence of Brindisi (1559-1619)

Do you know anyone who can speak eight different languages? No? Then meet Lawrence of Brindisi.

He was born to a devout middle-class family in Brindisi, Italy, and named Julius Caesar. He studied in Venice, where he became a Franciscan priest. Because he was able to speak in many languages, including Hebrew, he became a popular and powerful preacher in several different countries. His sermons were woven with Scripture. Many of them were published in 15 large books. Lawrence devoted his life to preaching the truths of our faith and especially to correcting the errors that many Reformation preachers were spreading. Numerous Protestants returned to the Church because of him.

In Hungary as chaplain to the Christian army, Lawrence rode before it, holding up a cross and leading the soldiers to victory over the Muslims. Lawrence became known for his goodness, his simplicity, and his prudence as a teacher. He had a great devotion to the Blessed Virgin. Her feasts of the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption were two of his favorites.

After holding several positions of leadership in his community, Lawrence became the superior general. On foot he visited most of the 9,000 Capuchin friars in Italy, France, Belgium, Spain, and Switzerland, preaching along the way!

Lawrence also had a splendid reputation as a missionary and as a diplomat. He forged the Catholic League and made peace between Spain and Savoy. On the way home from a mission to Spain on behalf of the people of Naples, Lawrence died in Lisbon, Portugal. In 1959 Pope John XXIII declared that Lawrence should be considered a Doctor of the Church.
