PRAYER BEFORE MASS

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

"If only we knew how God regards this sacrifice, we would risk our lives to be present at a single Mass."
– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

ASH WEDNESDAY

(March 5th) begins the Penitential Season of LENT when the Church directs our prayers and thoughts toward a deeper understanding of Christ's redemptive love. For all eternity He loved us even as we sinned and rejected that love. In the passage of St. John's gospel that is read at every midnight Mass, we hear the haunting words, "He came unto His own, and His own received Him not." By His choice we are baptized and are "His own" in every sense of the word. By our sins of pride, anger, lust, jealousy, gluttony, greed and laziness, we personally and collectively reenact the tragedy of ". . . and His own received Him not."

During Lent, we express sorrow for our sins and the offense they give to Almighty God and the pain they cause those closest to us. Every true Lent must end with a good confession. Throughout the forty days that we meditate on the result of sin in our lives and the world, we perform acts of reparation. Acts of reparation show our sorrow beyond the word "sorry" which is so easy to say. Isn't the need to "make it up" to someone we have hurt a sure sign of a healthy conscience?

If you want to do something positive, then you might make the sacrifice of denying yourself extra sleep and coming to daily Mass. Maybe you could say the Rosary every day, turn off the car radio and say it with the mysteries in mind. You could promise Our Lord to spend five minutes each day reading the gospels. Go in your room and close the door, the time is God's, and you want to give Him a chance to speak to you. The old standbys of giving something up for Lent: sugar in your coffee, candy, dessert, a second helping of anything is still a valuable mortification that teaches us to control the body's appetites. "Father, I have no patience with . . ." is something I hear again and again. Control is only learned by mortification. And there's that wonderful value of reminding ourselves every time we are about to eat of who we are, what we are, and why we are not eating this or that.

WHAT DOES "ENTERING LENT" MEAN?

It means we enter a season of special commitment in the spiritual battle to oppose the evil present in the world, in each one of us, and around us. It means looking evil in the face and being ready to fight its effects and especially its causes, even its primary cause which is Satan. It means not off-loading the problem of evil on to others, on to society, or on to God but rather recognizing one's own responsibility and assuming it with awareness.

Entering Lent means renewing the personal and community decision to face evil together with Christ. The way of the cross is in fact the only way that leads to the victory of love over hatred, of sharing over selfishness, of peace over violence. Seen in this light, Lent is truly an opportunity for a strong ascetic and spiritual commitment based on Christ's grace.

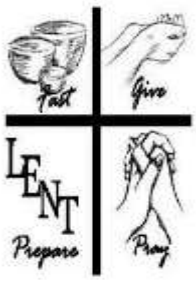
THE SEASON OF LENT – FAST AND ABSTINENCE

All Catholics who have reached their 14th year are bound to abstain entirely from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent. All Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 inclusive are also bound to observe the law of fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This means limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day. Those whose work or health would be impaired are excused from fast and abstinence. Individual conscience should decide proper cause for excuse. A more serious reason is required to excuse oneself from Ash Wednesday and Good Friday fast and abstinence.

Please carefully choose what you will sacrifice for Lent; and whatever it is, do it with a generous and joyful heart. It's our way of saying we are sorry for our sins and that we understand and appreciate the sacrifices Christ endured for love of us. Like everything this side of heaven, we'll only get out of Lent what we put into it.

LENTEN PRAYER



As I make my Lenten journey with You, send me Your Spirit, help me to give of myself, help me to turn away from sin, and help me to fast and pray, so that I may know You and serve You better. Let me be renewed through my journey to share Your grace with the world. Amen.

AMAZING EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES
EUCHARISTIC MIRACLE OF ST. MARY OF EGYPT

Eucharistic Miracle of
ST. MARY OF EGYPT
EGYPT, FOURTH-FIFTH CENTURY

We are told that when St. Mary was 12 years of age she left her parents and went to Alexandria. There she led a very dissolute life for 16 years. One day she came upon a ship about to set sail with different groups of passengers. She inquired who they might be and where they were going. She was told they were pilgrims sailing toward Jerusalem for the feast of the Exaltation of the Cross. She decided to join them. When on the feast day she tried to enter the church, she was seized by a mysterious force. Fearfully she raised her eyes to an image of the Holy Virgin and was overcome with a deep sorrow for the sinful life she had led until that day. Only then was she able to make her way into the church and worship the True Cross. She did not remain in Jerusalem. "If you go across the Jordan you will find peace" was the message of the Madonna. The following day after her confession and Communion she made her way across the Jordan to the desert of Arabia. There she lived for 47 years in solitude encountering neither men nor beasts. Her skin shriveled, her hair was long and white, but the promise of the Virgin proved true, she found her peace of soul. One day she met up with the Monk Zosimus and asked him to bring her Communion each year. One year Zosimus arrived with the Eucharist, but Mary did not show. In great sorrow Zosimus prayed: "Lord, my God, King and Creator of all, do not deprive me of my desire, but grant that I may see this holy woman." Then he thought, "Now what will I do if she appears, there is no boat around to get me across? I will not achieve my wish." While he gave into these thoughts, Mary appeared on the opposite shore and Zosimus was consoled. Then he saw her make the sign of the Cross over the water and walk out on it as though it were dry land. When 12 months had passed Zosimus returned but was unable to find the mummified remains of the saintly penitent. A lion had dug her grave and buried the body.

Inspired by the love Jesus shows us by offering himself to us in the Eucharist, we send that love to others. Our Parish Social Ministry and Catholic Charities Programs work tirelessly to answer God's call to service.

"Working in Parish Social Ministry renews my faith when I witness the volunteers bringing God's love to the clients, who may have lost that love in themselves. We are letting them know that there is hope in the world and that God is there for them."
