Prayer Before Mass
Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.
Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.
Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

"If only we knew how God regards this sacrifice, we would risk our lives to be present at a single Mass."
– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

"Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these." (Mark 10:14)

Our Lady of Mount Carmel

On one side of the mountaintop, the priests of Baal stood next to the stone altar dedicated to their false god. They had been praying aloud all day, but no god had answered them. On the other side, the prophet Elijah stood alone next to a stone altar dedicated to the Lord God, Yahweh. That day Yahweh sent fire from heaven onto the altar, proving that he, Yahweh, was the one true God. The Old Testament records this showdown on Mount Carmel in Northern Palestine (1 Kings 18:16-39).

During the many centuries between that event and the year 1156, people who wanted a quiet place to pray and to live close to God began to come together on Mount Carmel. A large monastery was built there to honor the Mother of God. The members of the monastery were called Carmelites.

In 1251, according to the tradition of the Carmelites, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to Simon Stock, the sixth general, or person in charge of the Carmelite Order, and gave him a scapular. The scapular was a long piece of cloth worn over the shoulders and hanging, in front and in back, down to the ankles. After that, all the members of that Carmelite community wore scapulars. Today some religious men and women still wear the full scapular. Some people wear a small scapular made of two small pieces of cloth connected by narrow cord or braid. It, too, is worn over the shoulders. Wearing a scapular medal or the shorted scapular is a way of honoring the Blessed Mother. July 16 is a major feast for al Carmelite priests and sisters.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha

The name Tekakwitha means "moving all things before her" or "she who puts things in order. This young woman moved away the obstacles to her Christian faith and put her life in order in a short time.

Tekakwitha belonged to the Turtle clan of the Mohawks, an Iroquois nation. She was born in the village of Ossernenon, near what is now Auriesville, New York, 10 years after Isaac Jogues and his companions were martyred there. Her mother was a Christian Algonquin, and her father was a non-Christian Mohawk chief. When Tekakwitha was four, smallpox devastated the village. Her parents and baby brother died, and the disease left her eyes weak and her face scarred.

Anastasia, a Christian friend of Tekakwitha's mother, took care of Tekakwitha and told her about God. When Anastasia went to Canada to be with Christians, Tekakwitha's uncle, a Mohawk chief, took her as his daughter.

Tekakwitha obeyed and worked hard. She was indoors a lot because light hurt her eyes. She excelled at cooking, beadwork, and repairing canoes. But when her relatives wanted to arrange her marriage, she refused. She felt that the Great Spirit was the only one she could love. This angered her uncle.

Tekakwitha learned more about God from a missionary. She was baptized on Easter Sunday when she was 20 and received the Christian name Katherine or Kateri. The following Christmas, she received her First Communion.

It was hard for Kateri to live as a Christian. Her people expected her to work in the fields on Sunday, the Lord's Day. Sometimes they didn't feed her. Children made fun of her and threw stones at her. Kateri endured this for two years.

Father de Lamberville, a Jesuit missionary, advised Kateri to go to an Iroquois village in Canada, where other Christians lived. One day when her uncle was away, Kateri escaped with a Christian named Hot Ashes. When Kateri's uncle discovered she was missing, he followed but did not catch her. After an exhausting journey, Kateri arrived at Kahnawake, near modern day Montreal. She gave the priest there a note from Father de Lamberville. It said, "I send you a treasure, Katherine Tekakwitha. Guard her well." Kateri was an outstanding Christian. She went to Mass daily, made frequent visits to the Blessed Sacrament, and prayed the Rosary often. She cared for the sick and the old, and she taught children. She was known for her gentleness, kindness, and joyful spirit.

Kateri endured severe headaches. She was not strong and could eat very little, but she offered her suffering to God. When she was 24, Kateri contracted a disease and died. Her last words were "Jesus, I love you." The scars on her face disappeared. Kateri Tekakwitha was canonized on October 21, 2012. She is called the "Lily of the Mohawks."

Let us pray,
We ask, O Lord, for the heroic courage and deep love of St. Kateri Tekakwitha. May her example inspire us to follow Your Will, even in difficult times. Amen.

Dear Friends:

As we give thanks to Almighty God for the gift of His Holiness Pope Leo XIV, let us pray that his evangelizing pastoral charity and wisdom will guide the mission of the Church which he now serves as Supreme Pontiff.

How beautiful it is that our Holy Father began his Pontificate from St. Peter's Basilica by focusing on the mission of the Church and on the Risen Christ. He said: "We must seek together how to be a missionary Church, a Church that builds bridges, dialogue, always open to receive, like this square, with open arms. Everyone, everyone who needs our charity, our presence, dialogue, and love."

One way to support the mission of the Church is by making a commitment to the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). The CMA supports ministries that reach out with the hands and heart of Christ to the aged, the sick, and the imprisoned. It ensures that we can help struggling families to find their way through economic hardship and back to stability.

The CMA helps to fund the crucial work of Catholic Charities and ministries that nurture children and teenagers in the Catholic faith, teaching values that they will carry into adulthood. It helps us to create paths of evangelization through the formation of our priests, deacons and lay leaders, and supports programs that promote the sanctity of life at all stages.

You can be a source of hope for your community, for the next generation, and for the Church. Each of us is called to respond at the deepest level to the Risen Christ and to our baptismal call to heroic "holiness and mission." Please faithfully support this appeal. Your gift, whatever the size, will be carefully stewarded to support the vital mission of the Church.

Thank you for your support and prayers.

Sincerely in Christ,

+John O. Barres

AMAZING EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES

Eucharistic Miracle of ETEN
PERU, 1649

The Eucharistic Miracle of Eten happened about 365 years ago in the Peruvian town of Port Eten. In a Host exposed for public adoration, there appeared the Child Jesus and three interconnected hearts of a brilliant white color.
Every year, the feast in honor of this event begins on July 12, with the transfer of the Host of the Miracle from its Sanctuary in the church in the City of Eten, and it ends on July 24.

The first apparition of the Divine Child in the Most Holy Sacrament took place on the night of June 2, 1649, during the Vespers and the solemn exposition in honor of the feast of Corpus Christi. At the end of the service, the Franciscan monk Jerone de Silva Manrique, was about to return the monstrance to the tabernacle, but he suddenly stopped. In the Host there appeared the brilliant face of a Child, framed by thick brown curls that falling to the shoulders. All the faithful present in the church experienced the same vision.

The second apparition took place a few days later, on July 22 of the same year, during the celebrations in honor of St. Mary Magdalene, Patroness of the city. According to the testimony of Brother Marco Lopez, superior of the convent in Chiclayo, during the exposition of the Most Holy Sacrament "the Divine Child Jesus again appeared in the Host, dressed in a purple tunic. Beneath it he wore a shirt up to the middle of the chest, according to the custom of the South American Indians. Through this sign, the Divine Child wanted to identify with the Mochican inhabitants of Eten, to demonstrate His love for them. In the same apparition, which lasted about 15 minutes, many also saw appearing in the Host three small shite hearts, united among themselves. These symbolized the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity: The Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit, present in the consecrated Host. To this day, the feast in honor of the Miracle of the Divine Child of Eten, continues to attract thousands of [the] faithful yearly.

Parishioners walk in faith for Sacred Heart feast

July 3, 2025 — Oceanside/Island Park Herald

By KEPHERD DANIEL

kdaniel@liherald.com

Sacred Heart Church in Island Park celebrated the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, its patronal feast day on June 27, with a pilgrimage to St. Agnes Cathedral in Rockville Centre. Now in its third year, the tradition has quickly become a cherished expression of faith and unity for the parish community.

The evening pilgrimage drew nearly 400 parishioners—young and old alike—who filled the cathedral pews for a special Mass celebrated by the Reverend John Barres, Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre. The homily was delivered by Monsignor John Tutoné, longtime pastor of Sacred Heart, whose words reflected the devotion and spirit of the gathering.

"This is not a testament to my faith alone or even my homily," Tutoné said. "But to the seriousness of the faith of our parishioners. They understand how important it is to show up for God."

Altar servers and confirmation candidates processed with families, holding a banner bearing the image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. At its base were prayer petitions submitted by parishioners over the past month—symbolic of the community's heartfelt intentions and reverence.

"A pilgrimage is a deep sign of faith," Tutoné said. "You inconvenience yourself, step out of your comfort zone, and 'do something' to show God: 'I am serious about what I am praying for.'"

Sacred Heart Church, established in 1938 and located on Long Beach Road, is home to over 1,200 households. For more than three decades, Monsignor Tutoné has led the parish, fostering a culture of prayer, service, and spiritual growth.

The Feast of the Sacred Heart is a Catholic devotion that honors the physical heart of Jesus as a symbol of His boundless love and mercy. The devotion was inspired by the 17th-century visions of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a French nun whose experiences brought new prominence to the Sacred Heart in Catholic tradition.

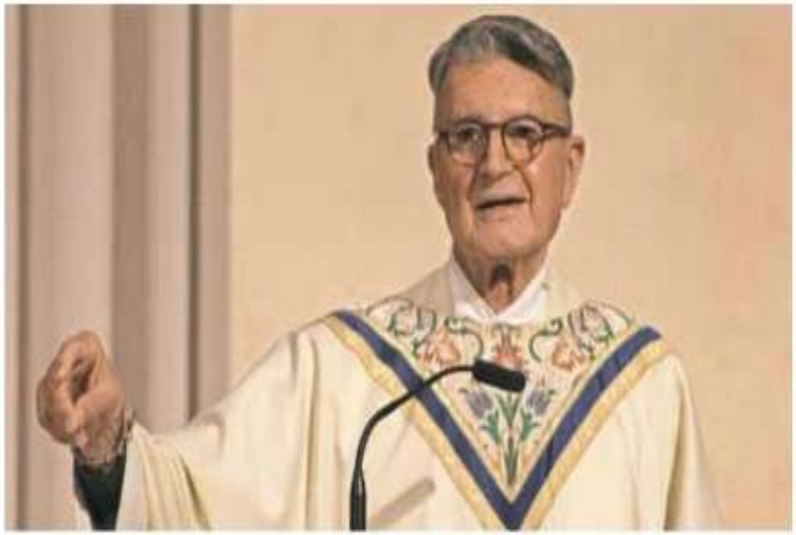
In his homily, Tutoné emphasized that this devotion remains relevant and powerful.

"The Sacred Heart really sums up what we believe," he said. "God is always loving, always merciful, and not a distant God. He comes near to us, hears us, and loves us like a parent would."

St. Agnes Cathedral—the mother church of the Diocese—served as a fitting destination for the parish pilgrimage. The Diocese of Rockville Centre is the eighth-largest in the country, serving more than 1.4 million Catholics on Long Island.

As Sacred Heart Church continues to walk together in faith, the annual pilgrimage remains a visible sign of the parish's enduring commitment to God, community, and devotion.

"It says a lot that on a Friday night at 7:30, our young people and families really came out," said Tutoné. "They understand the importance of sacrifice, which is the language of love."



Courtesy Sacred Heart Church

John Tutone delivered the homily for the Diocesan event to a packed Cathedral.

Bishop Barres and Monsignor John Tutone joined with parishioners on the foot of the Altar in St. Agnes Cathedral.
