Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

"If only we knew how God regards this sacrifice, we would risk our lives to be present at a single Mass."
– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Amazing Eucharistic Miracles

Eucharistic Miracle of Firenze, Italy 1230

Eucharistic Miracle of FIRENZE
ITALY, 1230-1595

The reliquaries of two Eucharistic Miracles which took place in 1230 and 1595 (see last week's bulletin for the 2nd one) are held in Florence's Church of Saint Ambrose. In the 1230 miracle, a distracted priest left several drops of consecrated wine in the chalice after Mass. The next day, returning to celebrate Mass in the same church, he found in the chalice drops of living Blood coagulated and incarnated. The Blood was immediately kept in a crystal cruet.

The first miracle took place on December 30, 1230. A priest named Uguccione, having finished celebrating Mass, did not realize that several drops of consecrated wine remained in the chalice and had turned into Blood. The historian Giovanni Villani gives a precise description: "A day later, taking up the chalice he found living Blood coagulated […] and this was shown to all the women of the monastery, and to all the locals who were present and to the bishop and to all the clergy and then it was revealed to all the Florentines, who gathered with great devotion to see. He took the Blood from the chalice and put it in a crystal cruet and again showed it to the population with great reverence." Bishop Ardingo of Pavia ordered that the reliquary be brought to him. He kept it for several weeks before returning it to the sisters of the monastery who took care of it near the Church of Saint Ambrose. Pope Boniface IX, in 1399, granted the same indulgence as the Portiuncula to those faithful who visited the Church of Saint Ambrose and contributed to adorning the reliquary of the miracle The 750th anniversary of the miracle was celebrated in 1980. The Reliquary (several drops of blood that measure about a square centimeter) is conserved in a reliquary which has been placed inside a white marble tabernacle constructed by Mimo da Fiesole.

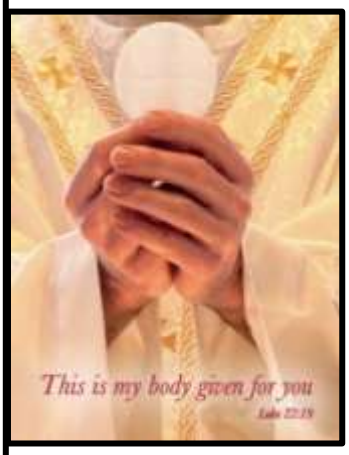
Catechetical Sunday



Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel.

This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 21, 2025. Those who the parish community has designated to serve as catechists will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry at the 10 AM Mass.

St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility

"Caring for those who Cared for us"

The special collection for retired priests, living at St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility, will take place this weekend, September 20th & 21st.

Our Priests, at retirement, often have given forty years or more to the mission of our Church and bringing people closer to Christ. The St. Pius X Residence enables these dedicated men who need extra care and attention to live at a facility that provides then with that special care, while still enabling them to serve as active fully engaged members of the community.

Thank you for your prayers & generosity!

St. Pio of Pietrelcino

The man who would become known as Padre Pio was born in Italy on May 25, 1887, the child of farm workers. He was baptized in the village church the next day and given the name Francesco. Even as a child he knew he wanted to become a priest. When he was 12 years old, he was confirmed and made his first Holy Communion. Three years later he entered the Capuchin Friars, a branch of the Franciscan order, and took the name Fra Pio (Brother Pius). In 1910 he achieved his childhood desire and was ordained a priest.

Padre Pio stayed at home with his family for the first six years after his ordination because his lungs were weak and he was in poor health. In 1916 he entered the friary of San Giovanni Rotondo, where he spent the rest of his life.

Shortly after he celebrated his first Mass in 1918, Padre Pio began to experience unusual pains in his hands and feet – pains that corresponded to the wounds suffered by Jesus when he was nailed to the cross. Eventually wounds appeared and Pio's hand and feet began to bleed, and did so for the rest of his life. Wounds of this type are called stigmata.

Padre Pio was very devout and spent a great deal of time in prayer, particularly in preparation for celebrating Mass. Feeling that his spirituality brought them closer to God, large crowds of people flocked to attend his Masses, which often lasted as long as two hours.

Great numbers of people also wanted Padre Pio to hear their confessions, and he spent many hours each day doing so. Those who came to him for the Sacrament of Penance said they found great peace in their hearts afterwards.

Padre Pio devoted his life to loving God and helping others to do so. He showed a special concern for the poor, the suffering, and the sick. He opened a 20-bed hospital in 1925. In 1940, with the assistance of Maria Pyle, a wealthy American woman, he began planning to establish a new and much larger hospital near San Giovanni Rotondo. The project was delayed for several years during World War II, but eventually the House for the Relief of Suffering opened. It still serves the poor and suffering.

In declining health at the end of his life, Padre Pio began speaking to his followers over the radio. Despite his fame and his many admirers, he felt himself unworthy and often said, "I only want to be a poor friar who prays." His stigmata disappeared when he celebrated his last Mass, and he died on the following day, September 23, 1968. Padre Pio was beatified by Pope John Paul II in May 1999 and canonized in June 2002. One of his memorable sayings was:

"Pray, hope, and don't worry."

Dear Friends:

As we continue to embrace our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, let us continue to be Renewed by the Eucharist and Sent out on Mission to strengthen our commitment to our Faith, and bring hope to those in need. This is a time of grace and joy—a call to come together as one community, united in purpose and love for Christ and His Church.

Individually, we may feel limited in what we can do, but together, we can achieve extraordinary things! The Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) allows us to extend Christ's love throughout Long Island, ensuring that those who are struggling find support, encouragement, and a renewed sense of hope.

The CMA is more than just a fundraiser—it is an opportunity for us to unite in mission, strengthen the Church, and continue the incredible work of Christ in our communities.

Your gifts support the education of our seminarians, deacons, and lay leaders as they prepare to serve in our diocese. Your gifts also help keep that fire burning in our young people in religious education classes and those participating in Youth, Young Adult, Campus Ministry, and programs such as Camp Quo Vadis. Our Respect Life initiatives, our Catholic Charities and parish social ministry programs, and our food pantries, all can work tirelessly and passionately because of your support.

Every gift, no matter the size, has a profound impact, and 100% of all monies raised go to support the Appeal and its ministries.

We are deeply grateful for your generosity and your willingness to walk this journey of faith with us. Together, let us build a stronger, more vibrant Church for all.

Thank you for your continued dedication and generosity. May God bless you.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

25TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME
THE PARABLE OF THE DISHONEST STEWARD - LUKE 16:1-13

In Luke's Gospel reading for today, Jesus told His disciples a parable about a dishonest steward. The steward's master decided to fire him because he had not taken good care of his master's property. The steward tried to protect himself, so that when his employment ended, he would have people to help him. Jesus taught his disciples: "No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon." This means that we must decide who we want to serve in this life—God or the world? Choosing to serve God means that we will face challenges, choices, and sacrifices. But God's love for us and the promises He gives us will sustain us always! And even if it seems harder in the moment, it is always easier in the long run! Activities:

- We show someone that we love them by talking to them or spending time with them. This week, find time to sit quietly and be with God!
- Jesus says in this Gospel, "The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones." What do you think He means by this? Can you think of an example from your own life of what this means?
- Think of a time in your life when you chose to do the right thing even though it was harder in the moment. Did you notice afterwards that you were grateful for doing it?
