Purgatorial Society

First Friday's Purgatorial Mass for the souls enrolled in our Parish Purgatorial Society is:

October 3rd, at 7 PM

Followed by Sacred Heart devotion & Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

Please come and spend some quiet moments adoring Our Savior present in the Sacrament of the Altar and offering reparation to the Sacred Heart. May this be an opportunity of tremendous graces for our parish.

Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

"If only we knew how God regards this sacrifice, we would risk our lives to be present at a single Mass."
– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Devotions to Our Lady of Perpetual Help & Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at Sacred Heart Church Saturday's at 3:00 p.m.

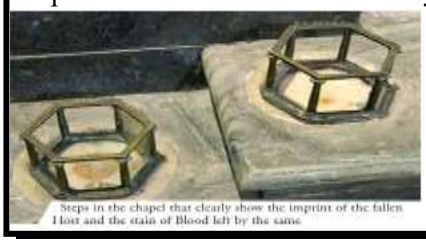
Amazing Eucharistic Miracles

Eucharistic Miracle of Rome, Italy1610

It is still possible today to see the miraculous imprint left by the Host which fell on the steps of the altar in the Caetani Chapel of Santa Pudenziana Church in Rome. The imprint on the step was left when the Host fell from the hands of a priest, who, while celebrating Mass was taken with doubt on the Real Presence of Christ in the sacrament of the Eucharist.

Santa Pudenziana is one of the oldest churches in Rome. According to a great number of historians, the Roman Senator Pudente gave hospitality to the Apostle Peter in his home, which stood exactly where the church's foundation lies. The name of the church is said to derive from the name of the Senator's daughter: Pudenziana.

Pudenziana and her sister Prassede, although never martyred, became famous because they wiped off the blood of martyrs after their execution. The church is adorned by numerous Roman mosaics from the early Christian era and was constructed in 145 A.D. on the site where there stood the house of Senator Pudente, according to the wishes of his daughters Prassede and Pudenziana. On the altar steps of the Caetani Chapel, constructed by the Caetani family, to this day there is the imprint and the stain of Blood left by a Host which fell from the hands of a priest while celebrating the Mass. The man was overtaken by doubts about the Real Presence of Jesus in consecrated Host, and immediately after the consecration, he inadvertently let the Host fall to the ground, where the imprinted mark is still visible today.



Steps in the chapel that clearly show the imprint of the fallen Host and the stain of Blood left by the same

Dear Friends:

As we continue to embrace our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, let us continue to be Renewed by the Eucharist and Sent out on Mission to strengthen our commitment to our Faith, and bring hope to those in need. This is a time of grace and joy—a call to come together as one community, united in purpose and love for Christ and His Church.

Individually, we may feel limited in what we can do, but together, we can achieve extraordinary things! The Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) allows us to extend Christ's love throughout Long Island, ensuring that those who are struggling find support, encouragement, and a renewed sense of hope.

The CMA is more than just a fundraiser—it is an opportunity for us to unite in mission, strengthen the Church, and continue the incredible work of Christ in our communities.

Your gifts support the education of our seminarians, deacons, and lay leaders as they prepare to serve in our diocese. Your gifts also help keep that fire burning in our young people in religious education classes and those participating in Youth, Young Adult, Campus Ministry, and programs such as Camp Quo Vadis. Our Respect Life initiatives, our Catholic Charities and parish social ministry programs, and our food pantries, all can work tirelessly and passionately because of your support.

Every gift, no matter the size, has a profound impact, and 100% of all monies raised go to support the Appeal and its ministries.

We are deeply grateful for your generosity and your willingness to walk this journey of faith with us. Together, let us build a stronger, more vibrant Church for all.

Thank you for your continued dedication and generosity. May God bless you.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael (Archangels)

God has numerous ways to show his loving concern for us. One of these is through the angels. God has sent angels to intervene in people's lives when they need protection on their way to heaven. The Archangels, Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, are three such messengers.

In art St. Michael is usually pictured as youthful, strong, clothed in armor, and wearing sandals. Biblical accounts of Michael present him as a mighty leader bringing justice and strength. The Book of Daniel describes him as a heavenly prince who stands guard over God's people, helping the Israelites return from their Persian captivity. Michael, who name means "Who is like God?" is the principal fighter in the battle against Lucifer, or Satan, as related in the Book of Revelations. The early Christians of the second century took courage from these accounts. They believed that Michael's intercession was powerful in rescuing souls from hell. In the fourth century, Emperor Constantine built a church to honor Michael.

Art depicting Gabriel most often shows him as communicating God's message. Biblically he is portrayed in three events as a messenger. In the first he explains to Daniel a vision he had concerning the Messiah. Another time Gabriel comes to Zachary, who is burning incense in the temple, and tells him that John the Baptist will be born. But most people associate Gabriel with the Annunciation and his message to Mary of the birth of Jesus. Gabriel's name means "Strength of God."

The archangel Raphael is pictured as the traveling companion of a young man, Tobiah, who is carrying a fish! A blind man named Tobit sends his son Tobiah on a journey to collect a debt. He asks Raphael (they don't know he is an angel) to be the young man's companion and guide. After an adventure-filled journey, Tobiah collects the debt, finds a bride, and restores Tobit's sight with the fish's gall. You can read the whole exciting story in the Book of Tobit in the Old Testament.

Tobit's family credits the success of the journey and the healing to the presence of Raphael. When they offer Raphael a reward, he announces who he is: "I am Raphael, one of the seven angels who stand ready and enter before the glory of the Lord" (Tobit 12:15). Since it was through Raphael that Tobit was cured of his blindness, the angel's name means "God's healing" or "God has healed."

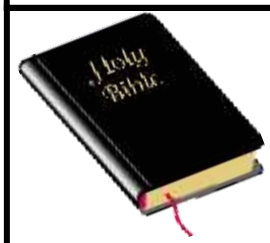
Because the archangels are very close to God, the Church urges people to pray to them to help them in their needs. In times of temptation, people pray to Michael; to know and carry out God's will, you can call on Gabriel; and travelers and those seeking healing turn to Raphael. In a mysterious and powerful way, the angels protect the Church and her people. They assure us that God cares for and is with us.

The Holy Guardian Angels

The guardian angel concept is clearly present in the Old Testament, The Old Testament conceived of God's angels as his ministers who carried out his wishes, and who were at times given special commissions. The function of the guardian angel is to lead men to the Kingdom of Heaven. Belief in guardian angels can be traced throughout all antiquity. A guardian angel is an angel assigned to protect and guide a particular person or group. Guardian angels serve to protect whichever person God assigns them to, and present prayer to God on that person's behalf. Padre Pio was known to instruct his parishioners to send him their guardian angel to communicate a trouble or issue to him when they could not travel to get to him.

Prayer to the Guardian Angel

Guardian Angel, protector of my soul and body, to your care I have been entrusted by Christ. Obtain for me the forgiveness of the sins I have committed today. Protect me from the snares of my enemy, that I may never again offend God by sin. Pray for me, your sinful and unworthy servant that, through your help, I may become worthy of the grace and mercy of the most Holy Trinity and of the Immaculate Mother of our Lord God, Jesus Christ.



Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."
-St. Jerome

FAMILY ACTIVITY PAGE
26TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME
THE PARABLE OF THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS
LUKE 16:19-31

FAMILY ACTIVITY PAGE

In Luke's Gospel reading for today, Jesus teaches the Pharisees an important lesson by telling them the story of Lazarus and the rich man. Lazarus was a very poor man who suffered greatly. When he died, Jesus said that "he was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham." In the same story, we hear of a rich man who lived with great wealth while Lazarus suffered. Upon his death, we learn that he was "in torment." The rich man in the story asked Abraham to send Lazarus to warn his family so that they could change their ways and not be subjected to the eternal suffering he faced. But Abraham declined, saying, "If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." Sometimes, we are like that rich man and his family. We know Christ's teachings and His Commandments, and yet we ignore the suffering of those around us and break those rules by sinning. Let's pray together for the strength to hear Jesus' message in this Gospel passage and to change our hearts and lives today.

ACTIVITIES:

● How can you grow in poverty? This doesn't mean you need to get rid of all of your things! Rather, having a spirit of poverty means you are detached from this world and attached to God.

● Do you make fun of others or look down on them for any reason? Make a resolution to never do so again, and if you are able, apologize to those whom you have hurt in this way.

● The Holy Souls in Purgatory are those who have died in a state of grace but are not yet completely purified in order to enter Heaven; they are suffering and need our prayers. Do something you dislike doing (without complaining!) today and offer it up for the Holy Souls.

RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY

Sunday, October 5 is Respect Life Sunday, a day dedicated to reflecting on the sanctity and dignity of all human life. On this day, we are reminded that threats to life and human dignity take many forms in our world. The Diocese works tirelessly to strengthen our commitment to promoting a culture of life through advocacy, education, and parish outreach. Your generosity in the Respect Life envelope collection will support this essential mission. We deeply appreciate your prayers and support.
