Prayer Before Mass
Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

"If only we knew how God regards this sacrifice, we would risk our lives to be present at a single Mass."
– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Dear Friends:

You can make a difference in the lives of those around us
by making a gift to this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal

Every Gift Counts!

A gift of $25 may help pay the gas for a Meals-On-Wheels van to deliver food for a day.

A gift of $50 from an emergency fund may help pay the electric bill in a cold winter month for a family in need.

A gift of $100 may help a Catholic Campus Minister bring daily Mass to students.

A gift of $250 may help subsidize a home for an adult who is developmentally disabled.

A gift of $1,000 may help support a Seminarian's education.

Because of you, every year we serve more than 600,000 people in our Long Island Community. This support enables our children to continue to receive the gift of spiritual formation, sacramental preparation, and quality education. It allows seminarians and lay leaders to fulfill their calling to serve the community. With your support, Catholic Charities can maintain its services for the poor and disadvantaged, and we can continue to reach out to our young people and others to find the best ways to guide and pass on our faith from generation to generation.

AMAZING EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES

Eucharistic Miracle of 2

TIXTLA

MEXICO, OCTOBER 21, 2006

"The ecclesiastical authority wanted likewise to specify that in a Catholic context the Miracle distinguishes itself for the following aspects:

1. Theological: The intervention comes from God. It is of divine origin.

2. Objectivity: The 'alteration' of the causes or natural laws is evident.

3. Subjectivity: Whoever accepts the miracle 'recognizes or accepts' with an act of Faith that the extraordinary event comes from the loving Will of God.

4. Purpose: It has as its end the good of one or many people."

The scientific research conducted between October 2009 and October 2012 came to the following conclusions, presented on May 25, 2013 during the course of an international Symposium held by the Diocese of Chilpancingo, on the occasion of the Year of Faith, and which saw the participation of millions of people coming from four continents

"1. The reddish substance analyzed corresponds to blood in which there are hemoglobin and DNA of human origin.

2. Two studies conducted by eminent forensic experts with different methodologies have shown that the substance originates from the interior, excluding the hypothesis that someone could have placed it from the exterior.

3. The blood type is AB, similar to the one found in the Host of Lanciano and in the Holy Shroud of Turin.

4. A microscopic analysis of magnification and penetration reveals that the superior part of the blood has been coagulated since October 2006. Moreover, the underlying internal layers reveal, in February 2010, the presence of fresh blood.

5. They also found intact white blood cells, red blood cells, and active macrophages that engulf lipids. The tissue in question appears lacerated and with recovery mechanisms, exactly as occurs in a living tissue.

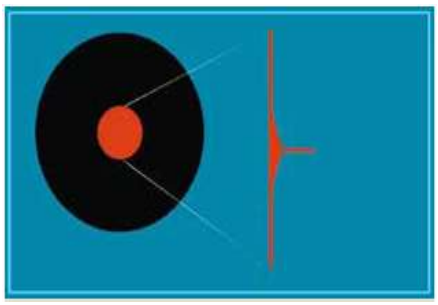
6. A further histopathological analysis determines the presence of protein structures in a state of deterioration, suggesting mesenchymal cells, very specialized cells, characterized by an elevated bio-physiological dynamism.

7. The immunohistochemical studies reveal that the tissue found corresponds to the muscle of the heart (Myocardium). On account of the scientific results and the conclusions reached by the theological committee, last October 12 the Bishop of Chilpancingo, his Eminence Alejo Zavala Castro, announced the following:

- The event does not have a natural explanation.

- It does not have paranormal origin.

- It is not traceable to manipulation of the enemy."



Graphic which illustrates how the blood flowed from the interior of the host towards the exterior, as it occurs with a wound.

The Gene Ex genetics laboratory in Bolivia performed another study and confirmed that it was human blood of the type AB just like the one found in the cloth of the Shroud of Turin and of the Eucharistic Miracle that occurred in Lanciano in 700 AD.

By analyzing the Host, it was observed that it was human blood of type AB and that it corresponded to tissue. Then an analysis was done of phytochemical markers which confirmed that it was live cardiac muscle. No study exists that can maintain alive a cardiac tissue in this situation. Normally after 48 hours the tissue dies, here 3 months passed before the result could be obtained and this is truly unexplainable for science.

Professor John Compagno, one of the preeminent histopathologists who study tissues, discovered that there was the presence of mesenchymal cells and of tissue of white blood cells and red blood cells, but to arrive to say that it was heart muscle further exams had to be done and the result arrived only after 2 years.

Professor Carlos Parellada, of the Francisco Marroquín University in Guatemala, shows in one of the photos taken of the sample of the miraculous Host, how the presence of longitudinal fibrillar structures is evident. By observing the image, one sees well the bifurcation that was made evident, which is typical of the muscular cardiac fiber, that is of the heart.

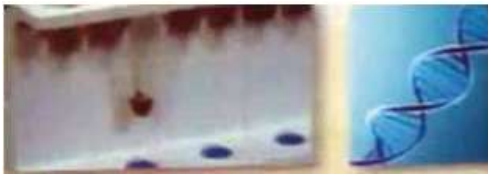
When there is the presence of human DNA one thinks that also the genetic profile can be automatically obtained. Interestingly in all the studies performed on the images that sweated blood or in the consecrated Hosts that have bled the presence of DNA was found, but when the work of sequencing to extract the genetic profile was done, they were never able to obtain it. The theologians say that since Jesus does not have a father, his father is the Holy Spirit, it is not possible to obtain his genetic profile.

In 2010, by means of a study of digital microscopic penetration through the shooting of ultraviolet rays and intense white light it was demonstrated that the tissue seen in the upper part of the Host showed some dry coagulated blood. The analyses showed moreover that under the Blood already coagulated beyond some structures of the white Host, there was also the presence of fresh Blood. Also, this analysis confirmed the fact that the blood was not placed by someone from the exterior because if it were like this it could not remain fresh for so much time (from 2006 to 2010) only in the internal part of the Host.



FAMILY ACTIVITY PAGE
29TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME
PARABLE OF THE PERSISTENT WIDOW
LUKE 18:1 - 8

In Luke's Gospel reading for today, Jesus told His followers a parable to encourage them to pray always, even when they felt tired or discouraged. In the parable, there was a judge who was not very kind and who did not love God. An old woman came to the judge many times, asking for his help. He finally became so tired and frustrated that he helped her just so that she would stop bothering him! Yet God isn't like the dishonest judge. God hears and answers our prayers because He loves us, not because we bother Him. This parable encourages us to persevere in prayer when we are sad, when we have problems, or even when someone we love is experiencing challenges. But God also wants our prayers when we are happy, grateful, and filled with joy! Just as Jesus taught His disciples that God heard their prayers, God is waiting for us to speak with Him in prayer too. Make some prayer time this week to share your love for God!

ACTIVITIES:

- Read the Gospel this week and discuss as a family a new way to add daily prayer to your family life; we can always go one step further and deeper in our prayer life! Perhaps consider praying grace before or after meals, prayers before bed, or praying the Rosary.
- If you struggle with distractions in prayer, bring each one that comes to mind to the Lord. Pray specifically about each distraction, and in this way, your distractions will become your prayer!
- Prayer is simply conversation with God. Be sure to leave time in your prayer to listen to Him, not just talk with Him.

ALL SOULS NOVENA OF MASSES

Envelopes to inscribe the deceased in the All Souls Novena of Masses are available in the rear of the church.

Mass Schedule for: All Souls Day
Vigil Mass, Saturday, November 1st

5 PM All Souls Novena

Sunday, November 2nd:

10 AM All Souls Novena
12:15 PM All Souls Novena

Although not a holy day of obligation (like All Saint's Day (but not this year)) All Souls Day is a day to live and practice the teachings of our Catholic Faith. From the time of the Apostles, we are taught that souls are purified in Purgatory and that our prayers for those souls can and do shorten their time of waiting. On All Souls Day the Church, by the power of the Keys given to St. Peter to open and close the gates of heaven makes special graces available, a plenary indulgence, to assist the souls in Purgatory.

The plenary indulgence flows from the power Christ gave to the Popes through St. Peter, to "open and close" the gates of Paradise. It means that on the Feast of All Souls we may, by our prayers, obtain entry into heaven for a soul waiting in Purgatory. The requirements are that within a week of All Souls Day we receive the Sacrament of Penance and Holy Communion and on the Feast of All Souls itself at least make a visit to Church and offer five Our Fathers, Hail Mary's, Glory Be to the Father, and the Nicene Creed for the intentions of the Pope.

- - - - - - - - - - - - - - -

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
And let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the Souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

CONFESSIONS

In preparation for the All Souls' Day indulgence, Confessions will be heard Saturday, Oct. 25th at 4 PM and after the 5 PM Mass, and on Sunday, Oct. 26th, after the 8 AM, 10AM & 12:15 PM Masses. (Examination of Conscience is on next page.)

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE FROM THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

God gives us the Ten Commandments to show us how to live a happy, holy life. The Ten Commandments tell us what we should do and should not do. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you see any way that you did not keep the Ten Commandments.

Did I try to make God the most important thing in my life?
Did I act like other things, activities, or people are more important than God?
Did I spend time with God each day in prayer?
Did I thank God for the good things he has given me?
Did I receive Holy Communion with mortal sins that I have not confessed yet?

Second Commandment: "You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain."

Did I use God's name out of anger or as a curse?
Did I speak badly about God, the saints, or any other holy person or thing?
Did I use bad language or curse words?

Did I respect and obey other adults in charge (priests, nuns, teachers, police, etc.)?
Did I obey the rules at school?
Did I do my best on homework and other schoolwork?

Fifth Commandment: "You shall not kill."

Did I hurt anyone on purpose?
Did I make fun of others or call them names?
Did I lose my temper or get angry at anyone?
Did I not forgive someone?
Did I leave out anyone on purpose?
Did I talk badly about others or gossip?
Did I share what I can with others, especially those who have less than I do?
Did I try to take care of my body?

Sixth and Ninth Commandments: "You shall not commit adultery." "You shall not covet your neighbor's wife."

Did I try to treat my body and others' bodies with respect?
Did I think about disrespectful things on purpose?
Did I listen to or tell disrespectful jokes?
Did I look at disrespectful images, videos, TV shows, or movies?

Seventh and Tenth Commandments: "You shall not steal." "You shall not covet your neighbor's goods."

Did I steal anything?
Did I take something without permission? Did I purposely not return something?
Did I damage someone else's things?
Was I greedy or selfish?
Did I share what I can, especially with those who have less than I do?
Am I thankful for what I have?
Am I jealous of what others have or what they can do?
