Prayer Before Mass
Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

"If only we knew how God regards this sacrifice, we would risk our lives to be present at a single Mass."
– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Mass Schedule for: All Souls Day
Vigil Mass, Saturday, November 1st

5 PM All Souls Novena

Sunday, November 2nd:

10 AM All Souls Novena
12:15 PM All Souls Novena

Although not a holy day of obligation (like All Saint's Day (but not this year)) All Souls Day is a day to live and practice the teachings of our Catholic Faith. From the time of the Apostles, we are taught that souls are purified in Purgatory and that our prayers for those souls can and do shorten their time of waiting. On All Souls Day the Church, by the power of the Keys given to St. Peter to open and close the gates of heaven makes special graces available, a plenary indulgence, to assist the souls in Purgatory.

The plenary indulgence flows from the power Christ gave to the Popes through St. Peter, to "open and close" the gates of Paradise. It means that on the Feast of All Souls we may, by our prayers, obtain entry into heaven for a soul waiting in Purgatory. The requirements are that within a week of All Souls Day we receive the Sacrament of Penance and Holy Communion and on the Feast of All Souls itself at least make a visit to Church and offer five Our Fathers, Hail Mary's, Glory Be to the Father, and the Nicene Creed for the intentions of the Pope.

- - - - - - - - - - - - - - -

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
And let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the Souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Confessions

In preparation for the All Souls' Day indulgence, Confessions will be heard Saturday, Oct. 25th at 4 PM and after the 5 PM Mass, and on Sunday, Oct. 26th, after the 8 AM, 10AM & 12:15 PM Masses. (Examination of Conscience is on next page.)

Examination of Conscience from the Ten Commandments

God gives us the Ten Commandments to show us how to live a happy, holy life. The Ten Commandments tell us what we should do and should not do. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you see any way that you did not keep the Ten Commandments.

First Commandment: "I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange gods before me."

Did I try to make God the most important thing in my life?
Did I act like other things, activities, or people are more important than God?
Did I spend time with God each day in prayer?
Did I thank God for the good things he has given me?
Did I receive Holy Communion with mortal sins that I have not confessed yet?

Second Commandment: "You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain."

Did I always use God's name with love and respect?
Did I use God's name out of anger or as a curse?
Did I speak badly about God, the saints, or any other holy person or thing?
Did I use bad language or curse words?

Third Commandment: "Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day."

Did I miss Mass on Sunday or a holy day of obligation on purpose without a good reason (like being sick or not having a ride)?
Did I complain about going to Mass?
Did I pay attention at Mass as well as I could? Did I say the responses, pray, and sing?
Did I fast (no food or drink except water) for one hour before receiving Holy Communion?
Did I rest on Sundays?

Fourth Commandment: "Honor your father and your mother."

Did I show love and respect to my parents or the adults who take care of me?
Did I disobey them? Did I get angry or talk back to them?
Did I try to be thankful for what my parents do for me?
Did I help my family at home? Did I complain about chores?
Did I argue or fight with my brothers or sisters? Am I kind to them?
Did I respect and obey other adults in charge (priests, nuns, teachers, police, etc.)?
Did I obey the rules at school?
Did I do my best on homework and other schoolwork?

Fifth Commandment: "You shall not kill."

Did I hurt anyone on purpose?
Did I make fun of others or call them names?
Did I lose my temper or get angry at anyone?
Did I not forgive someone?
Did I leave out anyone on purpose?
Did I talk badly about others or gossip?
Did I share what I can with others, especially those who have less than I do?
Did I try to take care of my body?

Sixth and Ninth Commandments: "You shall not commit adultery." "You shall not covet your neighbor's wife."

Did I try to treat my body and others' bodies with respect?
Did I think about disrespectful things on purpose?
Did I listen to or tell disrespectful jokes?
Did I look at disrespectful images, videos, TV shows, or movies?

Seventh and Tenth Commandments: "You shall not steal." "You shall not covet your neighbor's goods."

Did I steal anything?
Did I take something without permission? Did I purposely not return something?
Did I damage someone else's things?
Was I greedy or selfish?
Did I share what I can, especially with those who have less than I do?
Am I thankful for what I have?
Am I jealous of what others have or what they can do?

Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor."

Did I lie? Did I tell half the truth?
Did I blame others for something that I did?
Did I spread rumors about someone?
Did I tell secrets?
Did I cheat on schoolwork or in a game?
Did I keep my promises?
Did I keep silent when I should have said something?

AMAZING EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES

Eucharistic Miracle of

BOXMEER

NETHERLANDS, 1400

During a Mass in Boxmeer, in Holland, in the year 1400, the species of wine was transformed into Blood and bubbled out of the chalice, splashing onto the corporal. As soon as the priest, terrorized at the sight, asked God to forgive his doubts, the Blood stopped bubbling out of the chalice. The Blood that had fallen on the corporal coagulated into a lump the size of a walnut. Even today one can see the Blood, which it has not changed at all over time

The Eucharistic Miracle of Boxmeer took place in the church of Saints Peter and Paul in 1400. Father Arnoldus Groen was celebrating Mass and immediately after having consecrated the Eucharistic species, doubted the Real Presence of the Lord in the consecrated bread and the wine. Without warning, the species of the wine, almost like it was boiling, began bubbling out of the chalice onto the corporal.

The wine was changed into Blood and coagulated in a great lump. The reliquary of the corporal and the Blood is pre served to this day and the anniversary of the miracle is celebrated with an annual solemn procession. There are many documents that describe the miracle, as well as stone tablets and paintings. Popes Clement XI, Benedict XIV, Pius IX and Leo XIII all showed a particular devotion to the miracle.

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector
Luke 18:9-14

In Luke's Gospel reading today, Jesus told his followers parable, speaking to those who thought they were better than others and were convinced of their own holiness. Jesus told a story of two men who went into the temple: one was a Pharisee (a respected religious leader) and the other was a tax collector. Tax collectors were not liked at this time. People thought they were dishonest and not worthy of respect.

In Jesus' story, the Pharisee went into the temple and bragged about himself, telling God all the things he did that were good and holy. He thanked God he was holier than the tax collector. At the same time, the tax collector stood behind him, praying for God to have mercy on him, to forgive him for his sins. Jesus taught his followers that it was the tax collector who prayed correctly! This was shocking to his listeners, but Jesus was making a point: God wants us to be humble. When we think we are better than others, we are judging them and that is not our place.

Our Heavenly Father wants us to think of the needs of others before ourselves. God knows we are not perfect and forgives us when we make mistakes. He wants us to go to him with a childlike heart, ask for forgiveness and try to be better. He wants us to focus on His mercy for our own sinfulness. Being humble means loving God, loving the world around us, and loving ourselves as God's creations, while always praying for God's help and mercy in our lives.

Activities:

- In what ways do you need to be humble and ask forgiveness from God or others?
- Find a time to attend Confession with your family to receive this humbling yet beautiful sacrament of forgiveness!
- Notice when you are tempted to judge someone this week. Instead of judging them, say a prayer for them.
