Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

"If only we knew how God regards this sacrifice, we would risk our lives to be present at a single Mass."
– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

St. Gertrude (1256-1301) Virgin (Patroness of the West Indies) Feast Day-November 16.

The most important thing we know about Saint Gertrude is that she loved God and was very aware of God's love for her. When she was five years old, Gertrude was placed in the care of the Benedictine nuns at Helfta, in Germany. Under the leadership of a holy abbess also named Gertrude, their monastery was a center of holiness and intellectual activity. Saint Mechtildis was put in charge of the young girl. Gertrude become a charming person who loved to study.

Later Gertrude herself became a nun at Helfta and eventually was made abbess. When she was 26, Gertrude began having deep mystical experiences; she would be so caught up in God that she became unaware of those around her. She also had the gift of miracles. Her life from that point on revolved around the study of Scripture, prayer, spiritual reading, and the liturgy of the Church. She copied and translated many books and wrote her own in Latin. Besides being a theologian, Gertrude was known for her charity and humility.

Gertrude's holiness flowed in part from her great devotion to the Sacred Heart, the symbol of Jesus' love for the human race. Gertrude carried her love for Christ to others through the prayers that she wrote and through the journal of her mystical experiences.

Gertrude showed "tender sympathy towards the souls in purgatory" and urged prayers for them. She is therefore invoked for suffering souls in purgatory. The following prayer is attributed to St. Gertrude:

Eternal Father, I offer You the most precious blood of thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, for those in my own home and in my family. Amen.

Perhaps for that reason, her name has been attached to a prayer that, according to a legend of uncertain origin and date (neither are found in the Revelations of Saint Gertrude the Great), Christ promised to release a thousand souls from purgatory each time it was said; despite the fact that practices relative to alleged promises to free one or more souls from purgatory by the recitation of some prayer were prohibited by Pope Leo XIII.

Thanksgiving Dinner At Sacred Heart Parish

The tradition of Thanksgiving dinner at Sacred Heart
Is a gift of our parishioners in thanks to God
and in service to our community.
What we believe and how we believe is our motivation.
Pleasing God and bringing joy to others is our goal.

1. Who may come to dinner? ANYONE who wants to come and is able to come.
2. Suppose I am housebound? CALL US; if you are reasonably local (Island Park, Long Beach, Oceanside) We have parishioners who will deliver.
3. Can I donate a Turkey, etc.? YES: call us at (516) 432-0655 to coordinate drop offs.
4. Can I Volunteer? PARISHIONERS - YES

While we deeply appreciate the desire "to help," we can only coordinate a limited staff, sharing the same vision and goals and working in a very limited space. All are welcome to join us for dinner but if your search is to actively volunteer on Thanksgiving Day, might we suggest contacting one of the many local nursing homes or hospitals beforehand and inquiring about volunteering possibilities on that day and throughout the year.

Thanksgiving Day: Thursday, November 27, 2025

Dinner is Served: 12 Noon

RSVP by calling the Parish Office (516-432-0655)

By Friday, November 21st For dinner / delivery reservations for shut-ins.

-LEFTOVERS Not available until

3. Parishioners Helping at Dinner
(Thanksgiving Day at 12:00 p.m.)

We DO NOT need kitchen or serving help on that day.
"Too many cooks spoil..."

We DO NEED hospitality help.
We want our guests to feel welcomed and valued.
Hospitality volunteers sit with guests, engage them in conversation and generally socialize. (Hint: Talk TV shows, sports, food – Not Politics)

This is a very important part of what we do. Watch what happens; people come in alone, will find a seat alone, eat alone and then leave. Our hospitality volunteers try to provide friendly company – which might well be more important than the meal.

4. Clean up
Come at 3 p.m. – Lots to do!!!

Thank you & God Bless.

International Exhibition

MIRACLES OF THE EUCHARIST

ACROSS THE WORLD

Devised and planned by Carlo Acutis

CARLO ACUTIS
(London, 3 May 1991 – Milan, 12 October 2006)

«"My life plan is to always be connected to Jesus". With these few words, Carlo Acutis, who died of leukaemia when he was only fifteen years old, outlined the distinctive feature of his brief existence: living with Jesus, for Jesus and in Jesus"[1].
To quote Carlo's own words: "Our destination must be what is infinite, not what is finite. Infinity is our homeland. We have been expected in Heaven since time immemorial".
He also said: "All are born with their own originality, but many die as photocopies".

To move towards this destination and to not "die as photocopies", Carlo said that our compass must be the Word of God, against which we must constantly measure ourselves. Extremely special means are required to reach such a lofty destination: the sacraments and prayer. In particular, Carlo placed the Sacrament of the Eucharist at the heart of his own life, which he called "my highway to heaven". After receiving his first communion at the age of seven, Carlo did not miss daily attendance at mass or reciting the rosary. He would always try to practise Eucharistic Devotion, convinced that "by standing before the Eucharistic Christ, we become holy". Carlo would often ask himself why we see mile-long queues of people waiting for hours to go to a rock concert or a film, but we never see the same queues in front of the Eucharistic Christ. He would say that people do not realise what they are missing, otherwise churches would be so full that you would not be able to get into them. In the Blessed Sacrament – he would repeat passionately – Christ is present in the same way he was 2000 years ago in the time of the Apostles; that back then, people had to travel constantly to see him, while we are much luckier today because we can find him in any church close to our homes. In his words, "Jerusalem is right on our doorstep". From his days as a good catechist onwards, he would try his best to find new ways to help others to strengthen their own faith. For this reason, he left us his exhibitions as a legacy, among which the Miracles of the Eucharist stand out. In 2002, while visiting the Meeting Rimini exhibition, Carlo decided to stage an exhibition on the Miracles of the Eucharist recognised by the Church. This demanding work also involved his family for almost two and a half years. The spiritual effects brought about by this exhibition could not have been predicted before it opened. We can confirm that the exhibition has now been hosted on all five continents. Many parishes also asked that the material be collected in a catalogue, which was accompanied by an eminent preface written by Card. Angelo Comastri, Archpriest of the Papal Basilica of the Vatican and Vicar General to his Holiness for the Vatican City, and by His Excellency Mons. Raffaello Martinelli, then Head of the Catechetical Office of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. From that moment on, if we may say so given the results, the exhibition "has performed miracles". In the United States alone, thanks to assistance from the Knights of Columbus, The Cardinal Newman Society and The Real Presence Association and Education, with the support of Card. Edmond Burke, it has been hosted in thousands of parishes and more than 100 universities. It has also been promoted by several Episcopal Conferences, including those of the Philippines, Argentina and Vietnam, etc. It has even travelled to China and Indonesia. Important basilicas and sanctuaries have hosted Carlo's exhibition, including the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Fátima on the occasion of the centenary of Francisco Marto.

It is possible to take a virtual visit of the sites where these miracles took place and download the panels at www.carloacutis.com and www.miracolieucaristici.org. The exhibition can be requested by writing to the following e-mail address: info@carloacutis.com

Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Cleansing of the Temple

John 2:13-22

Today we celebrate the dedication of the Lateran Basilica, the "mother church of Christendom." The point of today isn't so much celebrating a specific church building, as it is renewing our loyalty to the Holy Father. That's because this is the pope's basilica, since he is Bishop of Rome. We celebrate this feast day as a sign of devotion and unity with the Chair of St. Peter. The Holy Father is the successor to St. Peter and has the primacy of the faithful as given to Peter by Jesus two thousand years ago. That's a long time!

Activities:

- Pray specifically for the Holy Father today!
- Even though taking an actual pilgrimage to Rome is difficult, take a virtual one! Look up the Lateran Basilica and see images of it online.
- How can you be more reverent in church? Perhaps you can take time to pray silently before Mass or keep conversations outside of the sanctuary.

"Zeal for your house will consume me."
(John 2:17)

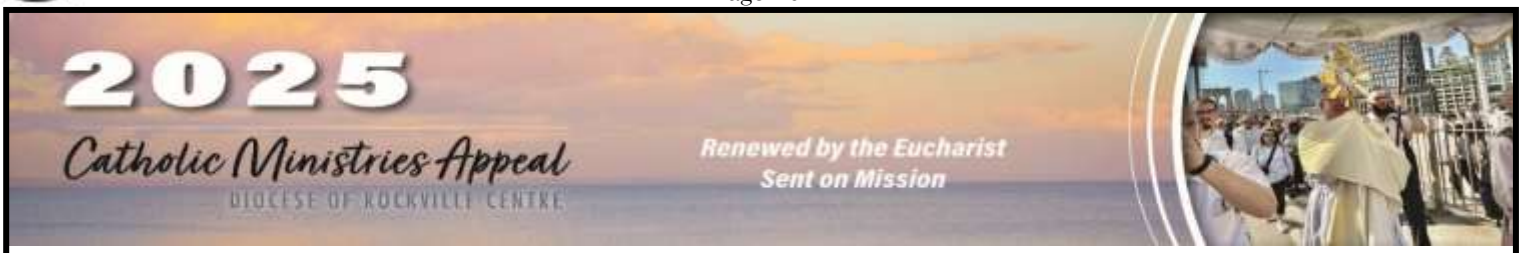
FAITH: One hour mission of song followed by Woods Worship Music

FUN: A Dad and Mom Mangano Skit and a Sing-A-Long

Father Charles and Laurie have united their gifts to praise God and minister to His people in a very special way. They have been singing for the Lord since childhood, and together they have touched the hearts of thousands with their meditative and inspirational music. In addition to producing 13 albums, a DVD and music video, Father Charles and Laurie have also co-hosted their own TV show on Telecare for many years. They have sung at countless venues and benefit concerts. In addition, through their music ministry, they continue to donate to many charities. This beautiful Faith and Fun Program on Friday, November 21 is guaranteed to be most uplifting! It is our hope that through this experience we will come to know, love and trust the Lord Jesus in a deeper and more intimate way, leading us to serve the Lord with gladness.



The Eucharistic Revival has enkindled a missionary fire in the hearts of the American faithful. Going out on Mission - for the life of the World is the most important phase, where we go out and share the love of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist to transform the world.

Faith is alive in our parishes and schools, soup kitchens and housing programs, on street corners and in churches. It is lived through people of all backgrounds, from every neighborhood. People everywhere come together to support one another.

It is in this spirit that the Catholic Ministries Appeal exists: to bring support and build strong communities through faith and your generosity. Every year, the annual Catholic Appeal provides us an opportunity to realize the difference we can make when we act together in God's love.

Please consider joining us again this year by making a gift to the 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal.

100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal.
