Prayer Before Mass
Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

"If only we knew how God regards this sacrifice, we would risk our lives to be present at a single Mass."
– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

"Jesus of Nazareth…is so intrinsically king that the title 'King' has actually become his name. By calling ourselves Christians, we label ourselves as followers of the king…God did not intend Israel to have a kingdom. The kingdom was a result of Israel's rebellion against God… The law was to be Israel's king, and, through the law, God himself… God yielded to Israel's obstinacy and so devised a new kind of kingship for them. The King is Jesus; in him God entered humanity and espoused it to himself. This is the usual form of the divine activity in relation to mankind. God does not have a fixed plan that he must carry out; on the contrary, he has many different ways of finding man and even of turning his wrong ways into right ways… The feast of Christ the King is therefore not a feast of those who are subjugated, but a feast of those who know that they are in the hands of the one who writes straight on crooked lines." – Pope Benedict XVI

Minute Meditation:

Almighty and merciful God, You break the power of evil and make all things new in your Son Jesus Christ, the King of the Universe.

May all in heaven and earth acclaim your glory and never cease to praise you.

We ask this, through our Lord, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God for ever and ever. Amen.

Solemnity of Our lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Luke 23:35-43

Today is a very special day. It is the very last Sunday of this liturgical year as next Sunday begins the season of Advent and a whole new liturgical year! Not only that, but it is the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. That means that not only is Jesus the King of everything (from the faraway galaxies to the stars to the tiniest flower on earth), but He is also Lord and King of every aspect of your life. Do you live as if this is true? How can you invite Christ to be King of your entire life? Today, we focus in a special way on the triumph of our Savior, Jesus Christ. The Gospel this year presents a paradox (a seemingly contradictory but true situation). As Christ is hanging on the Cross, He forgives the man hanging on the cross next to Him. Jesus, Who seems to be weak and powerless as He suffers crucifixion, shows that He has power over life and death when He tells the repentant thief that he will be with Him in Paradise. The God-man Who wears a crown of thorns on the Cross is the same as the King of the Universe with a crown of gold.

Activities:

- Where can Jesus transform your life, like He did for the repentant thief, from a seemingly terrible situation into one filled with forgiveness and mercy?
- Celebrate Christ's Kingship! This Sunday, make a fancy meal or a special dessert.
- As Advent quickly approaches, how can you make space for Christ? How can you allow Him to be King of your life, even in the little ways?

AMAZING EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES

Eucharistic Miracle of GLOTOWO

POLAND, 1290

In 1290, due to the invasion of the Lithuanians, a priest from the village of Glotowo buried in a field a silver ciborium plated in gold, with a consecrated Host still in it which he missed by mistake. The Lithuanian's troops destroyed the village and the church. None of the survivors knew about the hidden Host. Only a number of years later, while plowing the field in the spring, a farmer found it by chance, thanks to the strange behavior of his oxen. They had bowed to the found in adoration of the Host which was emanating a very bright light.

Painting representing the miracle

The most ancient documents describe how the miracle happened. The oxen were pulling the plow, behind which the farmer was walking. The sun was setting at the horizon, creating long shadows. The man lifted his eyes and prodded the animals which were going slowly up the hill. All of a sudden, the plow got stuck, the oxen pulled harder on the side and they turned over a big clod of earth.

The animals stopped as if frozen. At first the farmer scolded the beasts, yet paused surprised at the sudden change around him. The light on the field was as if it were noon and a very intense light was coming from the ground shining on the kneeling oxen. The farmer began to dig and noticed that the bright light was coming from a little ciborium covered with dirt. It contained a perfect Host as white as snow.

The news of the extraordinary event spread rapidly among the people, who rushed immediately to the site. The local authorities organized a solemn procession to bring the Host to the church of Dobre Miasto, though according to an ancient chronicle, inexplicably, the Host disappeared and was found at the same spot as the first time. The event was interpreted as a sign from above and a little church dedicated to the Corpus Christi was built on that location. The popularity of Glotowo grew through the centuries and in the eighteenth century the old medieval church was enlarged and consecrated by the bishop Krzysztof Potocki, on July 24, 1726. Even today, every year, the shrine of Glotowo attracts numerous pilgrims who come to venerate the relic of the Host, intact since 1290.

The Eucharistic Revival has enkindled a missionary fire in the hearts of the American faithful. Going out on Mission - for the life of the World is the most important phase, where we go out and share the love of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist to transform the world.

Faith is alive in our parishes and schools, soup kitchens and housing programs, on street corners and in churches. It is lived through people of all backgrounds, from every neighborhood. People everywhere come together to support one another.

It is in this spirit that the Catholic Ministries Appeal exists: to bring support and build strong communities through faith and your generosity. Every year, the annual Catholic Appeal provides us an opportunity to realize the difference we can make when we act together in God's love.

Please consider joining us again this year by making a gift to the 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal.

100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal.
