"If only we knew how God regards this sacrifice, we would risk our lives to be present at a single Mass." – St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen*.*

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

One of the Christmas Mass prayers reminds us that the good God came down from heaven to "lift up a fallen world." What a perfect image for our world. We are not just "fallen" but actually beaten down by a constant assault of fear and division. How very much we need to be lifted up. But in order for that to happen, we have to turn our eyes from media to God's communication. In Christmas He is speaking to us not words of fear and division but of comfort and hope.

Be comforted and not afraid.

Blessed Christmas,

Father John

A Christmas Prayer

Loving Father, help us remember the birth of Jesus, that we share in the song of the angels, the gladness of the shepherds, and the worship of the Wise Men.

May the hope, peace, joy, and love represented by the Birth in Bethlehem fill our lives and become part of all that we say and do.

May we share the divine life of Your Son Jesus Christ, even as He humbled Himself to share our humanity.

Bless us and let us be thankful for the true gift of Christmas: Your Son. Amen.

The Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ

While Joseph and Mary were in Bethlehem, the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to her firstborn Son. She wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger. (Luke 2:6-7)

Almighty God, a child is born for us and a son is given to us. Open our hearts to receive His life that our lives may be filled with His glory and His peace. Amen.

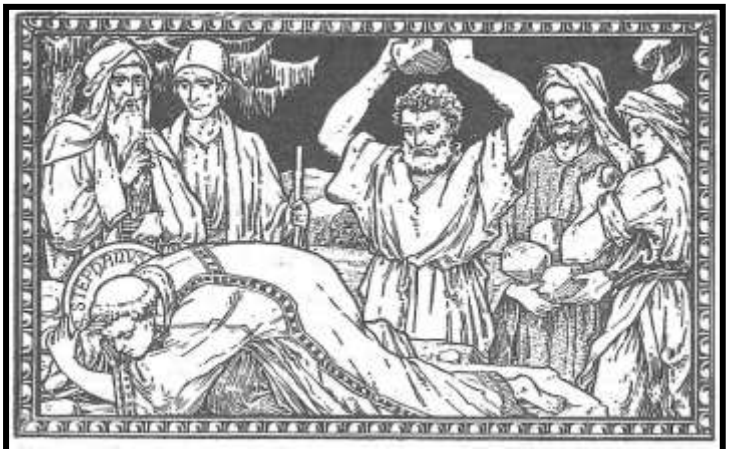
Smile Corner



St. Stephen (December 26th)

Stephen's name means "crown," and he was the first disciple of Jesus to receive the martyr's crown. Stephen was a deacon in the early Christian Church. The apostles had found that they needed helpers to look after the care of the widows and the poor. So, they ordained seven deacons, and Stephen is the most famous of these.

God worked many miracles through St. Stephen and he spoke with such wisdom and grace that many of his hearers became followers of Jesus. The enemies of the Church of Jesus were furious to see how successful Stephen's preaching was. At last, they laid a plot for him. They could not answer his wise argument, so they got men to lie about him, saying that he had spoken sinfully against God. St. Stephen faced that great assembly of enemies without fear. In fact, the Holy Bible says that his face looked like the face of an angel.

The saint spoke about Jesus, showing that He is the Savior, God had promised to send. He scolded his enemies for not having believed in Jesus. At that, they rose up in great anger and shouted at him. But Stephen looked up to Heaven and said that he saw the heavens opening and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.

His hearers plugged their ears and refused to listen to another word. They dragged St. Stephen outside the city of Jerusalem and stoned him to death. The saint prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" Then he fell to his knees and begged God not to punish his enemies for killing him.

After such an expression of love, the holy martyr went to his heavenly reward.

St. John, Apostle & Evangelist

Have you ever thought it would be easier to be a disciple of Jesus if you could hear and talk to Jesus in person?

John, traditionally the youngest apostle and the only one not married, had the experience of living with Jesus. He walked at his side, watched him perform miracles, listened to his teaching, asked him questions, shared experiences with him, and received signs of his great personal love. After Jesus had ascended to his Father, John had many memories to pass on to others.

According to Matthew's Gospel, John was sitting in a boat mending nets with his older brother James and his father Zebedee when Jesus came by and called them to follow him. John and his brother James said yes to the call. And this was the beginning of a great adventure, a truly life-changing experience.

Much of what we know of John's life comes to us through the Gospels. John and his brother James were called Sons of Thunder, possibly because of their fiery tempers. One example of this came when the people in a Samaritan town would not accept Jesus. James and John wanted to call down fire from heaven to destroy the town. Jesus had to correct their thinking.

In the Gospels John is a close companion of Jesus. The Gospel of John calls him "the one Jesus loved." John had the privilege of being with Jesus at crucial times. With Peter and James, John witnessed the miracle of Jairus's daughter coming back to life. Again, with Peter and James, he saw the glory of Jesus' transfiguration. Jesus also invited these three to be closer to him than the other apostles during his Agony in the Garden, when it was night and there was no show of miracles or glory. John stood at the foot of the cross of Jesus, too, faithful to the end.

After Jesus had sent the Holy Spirit upon the apostles, we read in Acts how John continued to respond to the challenge of Jesus' call. One day he and Peter cured a lame beggar in the name of Jesus and were promptly arrested and kept in jail overnight. The next day the religious leaders listened to their message about Jesus' Resurrection and were amazed that these uneducated fishermen were so confident and could speak so convincingly. When the leaders wanted them never to teach in the name of Jesus, both Peter and John said, "Whether it is right in God's sight to listen to you rather than to God, you must judge; for we cannot keep from speaking about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:19-20).

At another time Peter and John returned to Samaria to pray that the Holy Spirit would come down upon the Samaritans. This was quite a different request from the one John made earlier to call down fire to destroy a Samaritan town. Friendship with Jesus really changes a person, and John had been learning to live like Jesus all those years.

AMAZING EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES

National Eucharistic Revival

Eucharistic Miracle of BETTBRUNN

GERMANY, 1125

In the Eucharistic miracle of Bettbrunn, a very pious farmer in an excess of zeal stole a sacred Host which he brought to his farm in Viehbrunn. One day, the Host accidentally fell to the ground, but no one could pick up the Sacred Species. Everything was tried, and finally the Bishop of Regensburg intervened. The Bishop was able to pick up the Host only after promising the Lord that he would build a church in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. The report of the miracle spread rapidly and attracted a large number of pilgrims.

The building of the village of Bettbrunn and of the present-day Church of the Holy Savior owe their existence to a Eucharistic miracle that took place in 1125. In the place where the town and the church are located now, there was once only a small farm called Viehbrunn; next to it was a well that was used to give water to the livestock. The owner was a man who was deeply devoted to the Most Holy Sacrament. This man lived an hour and a half away from the parish church of Tholling and he was not always able to attend Mass. Because of his zeal, he decided to solve the problem of not always being able to attend church by secretly stealing a Sacred Host and taking the Blessed Sacrament home with him. The farmer took the stick that he always brought with him and made an opening on the top end of it, into which he placed the Sacred Host. Every day, when the livestock were resting, he stuck his stick into the ground and knelt before the Most Holy Sacrament for many hours. For several months, the man continued in this manner until one day, without thinking, he impulsively threw the stick with the Blessed Sacrament at a herd that had strayed too far.

The Host fell on the ground and the farmer, deeply saddened, bent down to pick up the Blessed Sacrament. Every attempt to lift the Host up proved to be futile and when he did not know what else to do he sent for the parish priest of Tholling. But the priest was also not able to pick up the Blessed Sacrament and finally they approached the Bishop Hartwich of Regensburg, who immediately went to the place of the miracle with all his clergymen. Only when he promised to build a chapel in that place did he succeed in picking up the Host from the ground. In 1125, the building of the chapel was completed and the precious relic was kept in this place until 1330 when a fire destroyed everything. The chapel was later reconstructed and in its interior they placed one of the pillars that had been saved from the fire.

4th Sunday of Advent

The Birth of Jesus

Matthew 1:18-24

In today's Gospel from Matthew, we learn about Joseph and how he came to be the husband of Mary and the foster father of Jesus. We learn that Joseph was troubled when he learned that Mary was expecting a baby. But like the angel who appeared to Mary, an angel appeared to Joseph and told him: "Do not be afraid!" Mary was carrying the promised Savior of the world, and they were to name Him Jesus! How overwhelmed Joseph must have been to be chosen as the earthly father of the Savior. And, like Mary, he said "yes"! We too must say "yes" to God. We too must not be afraid. Just as God took care of every need for Joseph and Mary, so He will take care of us. As we prepare our hearts and homes this Advent to welcome the joy of Christmas Day, let us anticipate God's fulfilled promise in the birth of the Messiah. Let us respond to Him with hope and joy, love and peace! Are you getting ready to receive Jesus?

Activities:

- Even though this time of year is very busy, take time to pray together as a family—the Joyful Mysteries are perfect for this time of year. Visit www.familyrosary.org for more information on the Rosary!

- Are there areas of your life where you are afraid? Ask Saint Joseph to help you have courage to do whatever God wants.

The Eucharistic Revival has enkindled a missionary fire in the hearts of the American faithful. Going out on Mission - for the life of the World is the most important phase, where we go out and share the love of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist to transform the world.

Faith is alive in our parishes and schools, soup kitchens and housing programs, on street corners and in churches. It is lived through people of all backgrounds, from every neighborhood. People everywhere come together to support one another.

It is in this spirit that the Catholic Ministries Appeal exists: to bring support and build strong communities through faith and your generosity. Every year, the annual Catholic Appeal provides us an opportunity to realize the difference we can make when we act together in God's love.

Please consider joining us again this year by making a gift to the 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal.

100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal.
