Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen*.*

Devotions to Our Lady of Perpetual Help & Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at Sacred Heart Church Saturday's at 3:00 p.m.

St. Joseph (First Century)
(Feast Day: March 19th)

If there were a photo album of Jesus' family, what pictures would be in it? Neither Mary nor Joseph appears much in Scripture, but some beautiful images are found there.

The Gospels of both Matthew and Luke show Joseph as the gentle but strong protector of Mary, the Mother of Jesus. When Matthew traces Jesus' human ancestry, Joseph's family is given (Matthew 1:16). Like identifies Mary as the betrothed of Joseph, of the house and family of David (Luke 1:27). This "righteous man" does not know of the miracle worked in Mary, who is to be the Mother of God, and so he faces a terrible dilemma when he realizes that the woman he loves and to whom he is engaged is pregnant (Matthew 1:18-25). Through a dream Joseph is informed of what has occurred, and his loving protection of Mary increases. As the time for Jesus to be born draws nearer, Mary and Joseph must go to Bethlehem – not only to be enrolled among the members of the house of David, but also so that the Messiah will be born in the city of the great king, as prophecy foretold.

At Jesus' birth Joseph guards Jesus and Mary (Luke 2:4-20). Joseph is present also, protecting Mary as her legal husband, when the child is circumcised and when he is offered to his Father at the Presentation. With Mary, Joseph hears Simeon's prophecy about Mary's sufferings (Luke 2:21-35). When the child is in danger because of King Herod's hatred, Joseph guards and provides for his family in Egypt until he can safely take them back to Nazareth (Matthew 2:13-23). During one of her keenest sufferings, Mary has Joseph to rely upon. When Jesus is lost in Jerusalem, Joseph and Mary seek him and take him back to Nazareth (Luke 2:41-52). After this, Joseph slips out of the Scriptures, except for a few references to Jesus as the "carpenter's son." The word for "carpenter" used in Scripture means a worker in stone, metal or wood. It is thought that Joseph died before Jesus began his public life.

These scriptural pictures of Joseph reveal him as a "just man," an obedient man, a good and loving husband and father.

Little attention was given to Joseph, but then people began to consider his role and his virtues. Public veneration of Saint Joseph existed in the Eastern Coptic church in the fourth century. The Western church began to celebrate his feast in the sixth century. Pope Pius IX proclaimed Saint Joseph the Patron of the Universal Church in 1870. Since then, Saint Joseph has been named patron of different groups and countries. In 155 Pius XII made May 1 the feast of St. Joseph the Worker. In 1961 Pope John XXIII proclaimed Joseph the protector of Vatican Council II and in 1962 included his name in Eucharistic Prayer I of the Mass.

St. Joseph's Feast Day

Sacred Heart will be celebrating St. Joseph's Feast on Thursday, March 19th with a Mass at 8 AM. There will be blessed breads, Italian pastries and a St. Joseph's Table available after the Mass & in the Parish Center.

All are welcome!

4th Sunday of Lent
Laetare Sunday
The Man Born Blind
John 9:1-41

Have you ever sat in a room that is totally and completely dark? Sometimes we lose power and our homes can be very dark. When Jesus walked the earth, there was no electricity. Oil and candles were burned to provide light. It is hard to imagine nowadays how dark the evenings must have been with no streetlights or electricity. In today's Gospel, we hear about a blind man who lived in such darkness all the time. Jesus heals him! The man can finally see light. At first, the blind man thinks that Jesus must be a great prophet. But after being questioned by the Pharisees and speaking with Jesus again, the man understands that Jesus is the Christ. Jesus proclaims to him that He is the light of the world. Not only did He allow this man to see physical light, but He also showed him spiritual light (Jesus). Jesus alone can bring light to the darkness.

Activities:

- Have you ever been afraid of the dark? Discuss with your family how knowing that Jesus is the Light makes a difference!
- It can be hard to be faithful during Lent. How is Jesus calling you to recommit yourself to Him this Sunday?
- Today is Laetare Sunday, for rejoice! What is a tangible way you can rejoice in the Lord as a family today?

AMAZING EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES

EUCHARISTIC MIRACLE OF DONEGAL, IRELAND, JULY 2023

In July 2023 Fr. Philip Kemmy, the pastor of the Church of All Saints in Newtown cunningham in the Diocese of Raphoe, Ireland reported the following experience: Fr. Philip had completed distribution of communion at his position in the church and proceeded to the tabernacle with his partially filled ciborium. He removed a larger ciborium from the tabernacle and trans ferred the contents of his ciborium to the larger one. As he was replacing the large cibo rium into the tabernacle he experienced a flash as if something had come down in front of his face, not sure of what it might have been. He then closed the tabernacle, genu f lected, and lifted the 'empty' ciborium only to discover that it wasn't empty. There was a single host within the ciborium that he had just emptied. He thought to himself, "How did that get there. I definitely emptied that ciborium. Where did that Host come from?" He then repeated the process of transferring the host to the larger ciborium. Later that day he received a phone call asking, "Tell me. Did you notice anything strange when you were at the tabernacle today?". He replied, "Maybe I'm nuts, but I had the dis t inct impression that a Host fell out of the sky into the empty ciborium." She answered, "No, you're not. I saw a man receive communion, but retained the Host within his hands while returning to his seat." She became rather concerned that he was walking away with the Eucharist. As she is preparing to challenge him and inform him that he cannot walk away with the Holy Communion, that he must consume it, a strange thing occurred. The host shot out of his hands straight up into the air about 7 feet, stopped … then moved in the direction of the tabernacle, stopped … and then dropped down. Fr. Philip then thought, "OK. I'm not nuts." The lady continued, "There was a woman sitting beside me, and she nearly knocked me out of the pew because she just thumped me, and said, 'Did you just see what I saw?" An angel for some reason felt it was more important for the Host to be returned to the tabernacle rather than allow that man to continue to have it.

"Dear friends, let us ask for the grace of a Lent that leads us to greater attentiveness to God and to the least among us..." - Pope Leo XIV

Dear Friends:
During the special Lenten season, please allow me to share a special request with you. If you have never contributed to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, or if you haven't contributed in a number of years, please consider making this the year that you join with me and other members of our Parish family to make a donation to the 2026 Appeal.

As you may already be aware, 100% of all the money raised is used to support the ministries of the Appeal that serve more than 600,000 people each year, and our parish shares in the money raised to use for our own local needs.

These programs include services to people in need; affordable housing for senior citizens; people with disabilities and our veterans; respect life initiatives; and formation of our priests, deacons, lay leaders, and young people. These are just a few of the programs that help make our church and this Island a vibrant and wonderful place to live.

But to help ensure that we can always serve those who come to us for aid, support and spiritual guidance, we need help from you!

If 100 of our parishioners who have not supported us in the recent past made a $25 contribution this year – think about how many more people we could help! If that amount is more than you can manage, consider $5 or $10.

Every gift count and makes a difference in the lives of others! THANK YOU!!
