PRAYER BEFORE MASS

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen*.*

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD

"I have some good news for you!" If someone gave you this message, what would be your response? Would you be cautious? Curious? Excited? You probably would want that person to tell you the news immediately. John's Gospel tells us the good news that "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him…may have eternal life" (John 3:16).

At a moment in time that we now call the Annunciation, God revealed this good news to Mary. She was the first to hear the good news and to believe that God would do what he promised. Her faith assured her that nothing is impossible for God. Mary also heard God's invitation calling her to be the virgin mother of his Son. This call meant that her life in the future would be different from what she might have expected. This call meant that Jesus would be formed in her womb, and that she, as his mother, would nourish and care for him. This call meant that she had a special place in God's plan for salvation. She would be able to bring Christ to everyone she met.

Mary heard this word of God and responded, "I am the handmaid of the Lord. Let what you have said be done to me" (Luke 1:38). In her yes response, Mary agreed to God's plan because she wanted what God wanted. She was willing to accept all the joy and pain. All the unexpected events that would help her and guide her. She was willing to bring Christ to a waiting world.

In our lives let us, like Mary, listen to God's word and believe in god's promises. Like Mary, let us be ready to say yes to God's plan for our lives. Let us try by our words and actions to become so much like her Son, Jesus, that we bring him to everyone we meet.

THIS 5TH SUNDAY OF LENT IS PASSIONTIDE WHERE WE COVER THE STATUES.

Why Do We Cover Crucifixes and Statues During Lent?
(Source Article by Philip Kosloski and Copyright (c) 2016 Aletia (March 19, 2016))

Veils over sacred images keep our minds on the promise of Easter. It seems strange that during the most sacred time of year Catholics cover everything that is beautiful in their churches, even the crucifix. Shouldn't we be looking at the painful scene at Calvary while we listen to the Passion narrative on Palm Sunday?

While it may appear counterintuitive to veil statues and images during the final weeks of Lent, the Catholic Church recommends this practice to heighten our senses and build within us a longing for Easter Sunday. It is a tradition that should not only be carried out in our local parish, but can also be a fruitful activity for the "domestic church" to practice.

The rubrics can guide us. In the Roman Missal we find the instruction, "In the Dioceses of the United States, the practice of covering crosses and images throughout the church from [the fifth] Sunday [of Lent] may be observed. Crosses remain covered until the end of the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, but images remain covered until the beginning of the Easter Vigil."

This is the current practice of the Church, but veiling from the Fifth Sunday of Lent onward is miniscule compared to what was once practiced. For example, in Germany there was a tradition to veil the altar from view throughout all of Lent. Families are also encouraged to imitate this practice and veil prominent religious images in their homes. It helps us to participate in the liturgical season, especially if we are prevented from going to Mass during the week. Otherwise, we only see the veiled images in church once or twice before Easter and it has a minor effect on us. It is also a beautiful tradition to pass down to our children, who will be intrigued by it and it will make this time of year truly special for them. We go through great lengths to decorate our homes for Easter, so why not prepare for the great feast by using veils?

But why go through such lengths to cover up images that are designed to raise our hearts and minds toward heaven?

First of all, we use veils to alert us of the special time that we are in. When we walk into church and notice everything is covered, we immediately know that something is different. These last two weeks of Lent are meant to be a time of immediate preparation for the Sacred Triduum and these veils are a forceful reminder to get ready.

Secondly, the veils focus our attention on the words being said at Mass. When we listen to the Passion narrative, our senses are allowed to focus on the striking words from the Gospel and truly enter into the scene.

Third, the Church uses veils to produce a heightened sense of anticipation for Easter Sunday. This is further actualized when you attend daily Mass and see the veils each day. You don't want them to be there because they are hiding some very beautiful images.

And therein lies the whole point: the veils are not meant to be there forever. The images need to be unveiled; it is unnatural for them to be covered.

The unveiling before the Easter Vigil is a great reminder of our own life on earth. We live in a "veiled" world, in exile from our true home. It is only through our own death that the veil is lifted and we are finally able to see the beauty of everything in our lives.

Eucharistic Miracle of DOUAI

FRANCE, 1254

In the Eucharistic Miracle of Douai, a consecrated Host was unintentionally dropped to the ground while a priest was distributing Communion to the faithful. Immediately he bent down to pick it up, but it lifted Itself up in flight and went to place Itself on the purificator. In Its place, a little later, a wonderful child appeared, who all the faithful and religious present in the celebration could contemplate. Although more than 800 years have elapsed, even today it is still possible to admire the Host of the miracle. All Thursdays of the month, in the Church of Saint Peter of Douai, many faithful gather in prayer before the miraculous Host.

Bonum universale de Apibus is the work written by an eye witness of the miracle: the Dominican Father Thomas de Cantimpré, doctor of theology and "suffragan" Bishop of Cambrai. On the day of Easter in 1254, in the Church of St. Amato in Douai, a priest that was distributing Communion, unintentionally dropped to the ground a consecrated Host. Immediately he bent down to pick It up, but It lifted itself up in flight and went to place Itself on the purificator. In Its place, a little later, a wonderful child appeared who all the faithful and religious present in the celebration could contem plate. The news propagated quickly, and the Bishop of Cambrai, Thomas de Cantimpré, came immediately to Douai to verify in person the facts which he described in this manner: "I went to the Dean of the Church, followed by many faithful, and I asked him to see the miracle. The Dean opened the small case in which he had reposed the Host of the miracle, but initially I didn't see anything special. I was conscious though, that nothing could prevent me from seeing, as was true of the others, the Sacred Body. I didn't even have time to ask myself this type of question, when I scarcely looked at the Host and saw the face of Christ crowned with thorns with two drops of blood that descended on his forehead. Immediately I knelt, and crying, I began to thank God". It is certain that already by the year 1356, that is, one century after the apparition, every year on Wednesday of Holy Week, a feast in memory of the Miracle of the Blessed Sacrament was celebrated, and the document which records it indicates that this event was in existence already for a long time. The precious relic of the miracle was conserved and honored until the Revolution. Then its traces were lost for many years. In October 1854, the Pastor of the Church of St. Pierre in Douai casually discovered, underneath the Christ in the Altar of the Dead, a small wood box containing a small Host, still white, but with damaged edges. A letter written in Latin gives witness: "I, the undersigned, canon, of the distinguished collegial Church of St. Amato, certify that it is really the true Host of the Holy Miracle, which I removed from imminent danger of profanation and which I have happily collected. I have placed it in this pyx and have left this witness, written by my own hand, for the faithful that will discover it in the future (January 5, 1793)"

THE FEDERAL SCHOLARSHIP TAX CREDIT: SUPPORT STUDENTS AT NO COST TO YOU

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS OF LONG ISLAND

Starting January 1, 2027, a new federal law provides an historic opportunity to support Catholic education by redirecting a portion of your federal taxes directly to student scholarships.

What is it and how does it work?

- Dollar-for-Dollar Credit: This is a 100% tax credit, not just a deduction. For every dollar you contribute to a Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO), your federal tax bill is reduced by that same amount.
- Credit Limits: Every individual who pays federal tax can receive a credit of up to $1,700 (or $3,400 for married couples filing jointly).
- No Out-of-Pocket Cost: Because the contribution reduces your tax liability dollar-for-dollar, you are simply "redirecting" money you already owe the IRS to support local students.
- Generous Eligibility: Scholarships serve students from households with an income up to 300% of their county's median income.

An Urgent Call to Action: Contact Governor Hochul

For families to benefit from this program, the State of New York must "opt-in". Visit https://bit.ly/2026FSTC to contact Governor Hochul and urge her to opt-in to the FSTC.

- Annual Requirement: The state's participation is not permanent; the Governor must choose to opt-in on an annual basis.
- Urgent Advocacy: It is critical that we contact Governor Hochul now to urge her to opt-in for the 2027 tax year.
- Keeping Dollars in New York: If New York does not opt-in, donations from New Yorkers can still be made to SGOs in other states, meaning our tax dollars would leave New York to support students elsewhere.

How to Support Long Island's Catholic Schools

While federal law prevents donors from directing a scholarship to a specific child, you have the power to choose which community benefits:

- Designate Our School: When you contribute, you can direct the SGO to send your donation to a specific diocese or even a specific school. Timeline: The credit becomes claimable for the 2027 tax year (filed in 2028).

This is a "win-win" for our families and parish communities. By contacting Governor Hochul and participating in this program, you can ensure your tax dollars stay local to support a child's Catholic education.

FAMILY ACTIVITY PAGE

5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

THE RAISING OF LAZARUS

JOHN 11:1-45

The Gospel today contains a powerful story of the death and resurrection of Lazarus. Jesus first weeps at the loss of His friend Lazarus. He is sad with those who are grieving the loss of their brother and friend. In fact, John says that Jesus wept. Losing someone we love to death is very sad for those of us on earth. But the story doesn't end there! Just like Jesus' death doesn't end there, neither does Lazarus'. Jesus uses this moment to teach Mary and Martha (and all of those gathered) that He is the Resurrection and the Life. Jesus then raises Lazarus from the dead—after he had been dead for days! Can you imagine witnessing this miracle? Just like Jesus wept with those who were sad at Lazarus' death, so He is with us in our sufferings and sorrows. And as He brings hope and joy to those at Lazarus' tomb that day, He wants to bring hope and joy to us as well! When we place our trust in Jesus, He will never fail us.

ACTIVITIES:

- Gather with your family and read the Gospel passage. Consider acting it out. How do you think Martha and Mary felt at different times in this event?
- What would you say to Jesus if he were sitting beside you today? Jesus is right here with you, as He was with his friends in this Gospel. Take a moment to pray to Him about all the things in your heart.
- Consider writing a note or a letter to someone you are missing! Send it by email or even old-fashioned snail mail!

Dear Friends:

Thank you so much for your ongoing financial contributions and prayers for our many ministries supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal. I am writing today to ask you to help us once again to serve the Long Island community by making a gift to the 2026 CMA.

As we approach the holiest season of Easter, we focus on Jesus' sacrifice and resurrection, preparing through reflection, prayer, fasting, and almsgiving to embrace the hope and new life signified by Christ's victory over death.

Easter represents hope, redemption, and eternal life, a reminder that darkness gives way to new beginnings, a core message for daily living, not just a single day. As Pope Leo reminds us, the Risen One is found in "small daily acts of compassion and love toward others."

One simple but beautiful way of living Jesus' command to love is by participating in the Catholic Ministries Appeal, which invites us to share in the Church's mission. Just last year, because of the funding received through the Appeal, ministries here on Long Island were able to: sustain Catholic Charities in its mandate to lift up the needy and the poor; help our young people to grow in their faith through education, campus ministry, and youth ministry; support those shackled by addiction at rehabilitation facilities like Talbot House; help pay tuition for our future priests and deacons; further the life-affirming work of the Office of Human Life, Family, and Bioethics, particularly in their commitment to the unborn.

Please join me in making a gift to this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal, so that we can continue to perform daily acts of compassion and love through our vital diocesan ministries.

My prayers and best wishes to you and your family for this Holy Season of Lent and Easter.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres
