"If men only appreciated the value of the holy Mass they would need traffic officers at church doors every day to keep the crowds in order."
– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen*.*

Daily Rosary

The Rosary is recited in the Church Monday through Saturday mornings at 7:25 AM.
(EXCEPT Holy Saturday – No Sacramentals)
All are welcome to come and pray!

Good Friday Services

On Good Friday, April 3rd, we will have the Passion Liturgy at 3 p.m. followed by Confessions at 4 p.m. and Stations of the Cross at 7 p.m.
Invite family & friends

"The duty of fasting is rendered acceptable to God when it is made perfect by the fruits of Charity."
St. John Cassian

A Special Sacred Heart Word of Appreciation

A special Sacred Heart word of appreciation to the Paccione family for donating the bread which we blessed in celebration of St. Joseph's Day. These two feast days, St. Patrick and St. Joseph, are bright spots in the dark days of Lent. Hang on! One more week until Easter. FYI. It's the generosity of the Paccione family that keeps our landscaped grounds so beautiful and the snow removed from our parking lot. Thank you!

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

On the first Easter Sunday morning the disciples of Jesus journeyed from grief, despair and confusion, to faith, hope and an in expressible joy. It is a journey we all too frequently make in our lives.

I invite you to make this journey with us this Holy Week and Easter. May our participation in Holy Week and Easter Liturgies enrich our understanding of the great truth of God's eternal desire that heaven be opened for us.

My ardent prayer is that each of you will make time to go to Confession and join us on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the beautiful Mass of Easter.

Be sure that an Easter prepared for in this way will bring great graces and blessings to your family.

May you know that inner peace of this holiest season.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Kolin

REMINDER FOR GOOD FRIDAY: Fast and Abstinence

All Catholics who have reached their 14th year are bound to abstain entirely from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent. All Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 inclusive are also bound to observe the law of fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This means limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day.

PRAYER TO JESUS CHRIST CRUCIFIED

(Communion Prayer said before the Crucifix)

Behold O kind and most sweet Jesus, I cast myself upon my knees in Your sight, and with the most fervent desire of my soul I pray and beseech You that You would impress upon my heart lively sentiments of Faith, Hope, and Charity, with true repentance for my sins and a firm desire of amendment while with deep affection and grief of soul I ponder within myself and mentally contemplate Your five most precious wounds, having before my eyes that which David spoke in prophecy of You, O good Jesus: They have pierced My Hands and feet; they have numbered all My bones.

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

On Good Friday, our parish will take up the annual Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land.

Each day, the news reminds us of the violence and instability plaguing the Middle East, but we rarely hear of the shrinking Christian community there, a community that struggles to remain in the land of Christ's birth, death and resurrection. Please help support our brothers and sisters in the Holy Land by giving to the Good Friday Collection. This Pontifical Collection allows the Franciscans and others to continue caring for Christianity's holiest sites and for God's people in the Holy Land.

Please be generous.

Saved from Shipwreck by the Eucharist

SAINT SATYRUS

4TH CENTURY

In his work, De excessu fratris Satyri, St. Ambrose himself describes this Eucharistic miracle in which his brother Satyrus played a key role. St. Satyrus was able to save himself from shipwreck thanks to the Eucharist.

About his brother, St. Ambrose writes: "What shall I say about his reverence in the worship of God? One episode will suffice. Before being fully initiated into the sublime mysteries (First Communion), he experienced a shipwreck. When the ship on which he was traveling ran aground on some reefs and while, all around, the waves were tearing it apart, he was not afraid of dying but of having to die without having been nourished by the Sacred Mysteries. So, he asked for the Eucharist from those whom he knew to be initiated into the Divine Sacrament of the Faithful and placed the Holy Eucharist in a handkerchief, which he hung around his neck. Then he threw himself into the sea and looked for a plank loosened from the hulk of the ship to hang on to, but did not try to swim away to save himself, because he had put his trust only in the weapons of the faith. Since he was convinced that he was sufficiently protected and defended by this faith, he did not look for any other help.

"Then, as soon as he was saved from the waves and reached land, he paid tribute to the Leader to whom he had entrusted himself. As soon as he was saved and realized all his servants had been saved, he went to the church of God, without complaining about the goods he had lost, to thank Him for having saved him and to get to know His Eternal Mysteries. He said there was no more important duty than that of giving thanks… He who had experienced the great help of the Heavenly Mysteries wrapped in a handkerchief considered it important to consume the Holy Eucharist and receive the Eucharistic Christ into the depths of his heart."*

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Matthew 21:1-11; 26:14-27:66

Palm Sunday is the start of Holy Week, the most sacred time in the Church, when we remember the events of Our Lord's Passion, Death, and Resurrection. We start by recalling Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem, as the crowds wave palms and shout "Hosanna!" Then we read a long section from the Gospel of Matthew about Jesus' death. This is why He came to Jerusalem. In fact, this is why He came to earth! To suffer and die for love of us is the mission of Jesus. The entire Old Testament points to His coming (even in Genesis!), giving detail after detail of what Christ would be like and what He would do. Even the details of His Passion and Death have their roots in many Old Testament prophecies. How many can you find mentioned in today's Gospel?

Activities:

- Gather with your family and read today's readings. How do you think Jesus felt? What did Jesus do when he was feeling afraid in Gethsemane?
- Make plans in advance for Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Sunday that embrace this sacred time.
- The crowds that sing "Hosanna!" today will be crying out "Crucify him!" in a few short days. Do you notice this hypocrisy or double standard in your life? How can you be more faithful to the Lord this Holy Week?

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Easter 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Happy Easter to you and your families!

This Easter Sunday, Easter Octave, Divine Mercy Sunday and Easter Season we continue to pray and contemplate our Lord's Resurrection appearances, and we give thanks for Pope Leo XIV and his worldwide spirit of Catholic mission.

In his Cycle of Catechesis on the Resurrection of Christ, Pope Leo writes: "The Resurrection of Jesus Christ is an event that one never finishes contemplating and meditating on, and the more one explores it, the more one is filled with wonder, drawn in as if by an overwhelming yet fascinating light. It was an explosion of life and joy that changed the meaning of reality itself, from negative to positive; yet it did not happen in a striking way, much less a violent one, but gently, hidden, one might say humbly." (October 22, 2025 Audience)

Pope Leo recognizes that there is much sadness in the world – "a feeling of precariousness, at times profound desperation." We think especially of the daily crosses and trials of those from war-torn and violence-ridden areas of the world.

The Holy Father then reflects on the despair of the two disciples on the Road to Emmaus. Their hearts burn and their joy is restored as the Risen Lord explains the Scriptures to them and they recognize Him in the breaking of the bread. In this way, the Paschal Mystery gives us hope and strength in every trial and circumstance.

Pope Leo concludes: "May the unexpected joy of the disciples of Emmaus be a gentle reminder to us when the going gets tough. It is the Risen One who radically changes our perspective, instilling the hope that fills the void of sadness. On the paths of the heart, the Risen One walks with us and for us. He bears witness to the defeat of death and affirms the victory of life, despite the darkness of Calvary... He alone makes the impossible possible!"

May the Light of the Risen Christ illumine our path to holiness on earth and our path to eternal life and happiness with God in Heaven.

Sincerely yours in the Risen Lord,

+John O. Barres

Dear Friends:

Thank you so much for your ongoing financial contributions and prayers for our many ministries supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal. I am writing today to ask you to help us once again to serve the Long Island community by making a gift to the 2026 CMA.

As we approach the holiest season of Easter, we focus on Jesus' sacrifice and resurrection, preparing through reflection, prayer, fasting, and almsgiving to embrace the hope and new life signified by Christ's victory over death.

Easter represents hope, redemption, and eternal life, a reminder that darkness gives way to new beginnings, a core message for daily living, not just a single day. As Pope Leo reminds us, the Risen One is found in "small daily acts of compassion and love toward others."

One simple but beautiful way of living Jesus' command to love is by participating in the Catholic Ministries Appeal, which invites us to share in the Church's mission. Just last year, because of the funding received through the Appeal, ministries here on Long Island were able to: sustain Catholic Charities in its mandate to lift up the needy and the poor; help our young people to grow in their faith through education, campus ministry, and youth ministry; support those shackled by addiction at rehabilitation facilities like Talbot House; help pay tuition for our future priests and deacons; further the life-affirming work of the Office of Human Life, Family, and Bioethics, particularly in their commitment to the unborn.

Please join me in making a gift to this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal, so that we can continue to perform daily acts of compassion and love through our vital diocesan ministries.

My prayers and best wishes to you and your family for this Holy Season of Lent and Easter.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres
