Prayer Before Mass
Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Saint Joseph the Worker

How do you feel about work? Have you ever wondered why people work? What if people didn't work?

Joseph, the carpenter of Nazareth, understood the importance of work. He was a worker himself, and probably taught Jesus his trade. Perhaps they worked together, hour after hour, trying to make the world a better place in which to live. By the work of his hands, Joseph earned a fair wage and provided for his family, Mary and Jesus. His labor enabled them to live with dignity. And through his work, Joseph honored the Father in heaven and continued the act of creation.

Joseph was protector and provider for the Holy Family at Nazareth. Families often turn to him in prayer, for he understands the struggles of family life - the trials and heartaches – as well as the great joys. Over the years workers and people in need of work have also turned to Joseph.

In 1889 a group called the International Socialist Congress decided to celebrate May 1 as a day for workers, a holiday in their honor, a day to celebrate the importance of work. But these people and many Communists like them did not view work as a way to honor God, or as a reflection of human dignity, or as a way to share in God's work of creation. These people did not believe in God.

To give workers a patron, the Church turned to Joseph, who had been made the Patron of the Universal Church by Pope Pius IX in 1870 and the model for fathers of families 19 years later. Joseph was named protector of workers by Pope Benedict XV, and in 1955 the feast of St. Joseph the Worker was set on May 1 by Pope Pius XII.

You know how difficult work can be. Perhaps you also know how satisfying it can be. When you have worked hard at a job, you can stand back and admire it and praise God through it. Whether you build a cathedral or a sandcastle, it can bring you closer to God. Today pray to Saint Joseph for his help in all your work and for people who want and need jobs, but cannot find them.

May, Month of Mary

May is the "month, which the faithful have especially dedicated to Our Blessed Lady," and it is the occasion for a "moving tribute of faith and love which Catholics in every part of the world pay to the Queen of Heaven. During this month Christians, both in church and in the privacy of the home, offer up to Mary from their hearts an especially fervent and loving homage of prayer and veneration. In this month, too, the benefits of God's mercy come down to us from her throne in greater abundance." Saint Pope Paul VI

May crowning's are one of the most popular ways to celebrate the month of Mary.

This May, adorn your indoor/outdoor statue of May with a crown of flowers. For an extra special touch, add a candle!

Sometime during Mary's month, consider praying a novena to the Blessed Mother for a particular intention that you want to entrust to her Immaculate Heart, either for yourself or for someone else.

Another noteworthy devotion to Mary is the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

According to traditional accounts, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared at Cambridge to St. Simon Stock, a Prior General of the Carmelite Order in the middle of the 13th century.

St. Simon was a man of great holiness and devotion. In his prayers he asked the Virgin to favor his Order with some singular privilege. The Virgin appeared to him holding the Scapular in her hand saying, "This is for you and yours a privilege; the one who dies in it will be saved."

The Scapular is a sign of salvation, a sure safeguard in danger, a pledge of peace and special protection. The following conditions required for obtaining the promise of the Brown Scapular are to maintain its material, color and shape, to be enrolled in the Scapular by a priest, or a lay person who has been given this faculty, and to wear it continually. It is a silent prayer that shows one's complete consecration and dedication to the Blessed Virgin Mary. By wearing the Scapular, one venerates her, loves her, and trusts in her protection.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Please remember to pray for the members of our Parish serving in the Armed Forces.

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands, especially those from our parish, community and families. Pour upon us, O Lord, the spirit of brotherly kindness and peace.

Gospel Activity

4th Sunday of Easter
The Good Shepherd
John 10:1-10

Family Activity Page

In this Gospel, Jesus tells us that He is the Good Shepherd. Many of the people who lived at the time and place of Jesus were shepherds, so this was a familiar job for lots of the people listening. Some shepherds were just hired to take care of the sheep. This meant that they didn't really care what happened to the sheep. But we, the sheep, actually belong to Jesus, and He takes the most excellent care of us. What happens to us matters to Him! We should recognize His voice and run after Him. How can you hear the voice of Jesus? Pray, read the Bible, go to Mass, go to Confession, talk with holy people. Ask Him to help you hear Him—He is happy to answer that prayer! Don't listen to the thieves and robbers who tempt us away to sin. Listen for Jesus' voice.

Activities:

- We have many ways to deepen our relationship with Jesus! Reading the Bible each day or studying the saints, praying the Rosary and memorizing the mysteries, are all wonderful tools.
- This week do something different to deepen your friendship with Jesus. He is waiting!
- How are you distracted away from Jesus? How can you make an effort to listen to His voice instead?

Eucharistic Miracle of PARIS

FRANCE, 1290

Miniature of a cartolario (16th Century), kept in the National Archives which represents the scene of the sacrilege

During Easter of 1290 a non-believer who harbored animosity toward the Faith and did not believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist was able to gain possession of a consecrated Host with the intent to desecrate it. He stabbed the Host and threw it into boiling water. The Host came out of the water by itself right in front of the man who was distressed by this and so put the Host in the basin of a pious woman. The woman immediately brought the Host to her pastor.

There are numerous documents that testify to the events of this miracle. The Italian historian Giovanni Villani in Book VII, Chapter 136, of his celebrated History of Florence reports all the principal facts of the miracle. A deep study of the sources was done by Mrs. Moreau-Rendu in a work entitled: A Paris, Rue des Jardins published in 1954 with a preface by Bishop Touzé who was the Auxiliary Bishop of Paris. The author, after a detailed list of the documents, placed them under rigorous examination and declared with confidence the authenticity of the facts. The best-known version of the story is found in the History of the Church of Paris written by the French archbishop, Archbishop Rupp, who tells of the Eucharistic Miracle of Paris in the pages dedicated to the episcopate of Simon Matifas of Busay who held the See of St. Denis from 1290 to 1304: Easter Sunday, April 2, 1290, a man named Jonathas, who hated the Catholic Faith and did not believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the consecrated Host, was able to gain possession of a consecrated Host.

The man stabbed the Host with a knife and the Host began to bleed. The blood filled the container in which he had placed the Host. Panic-stricken, the man decided to throw the Host into the fire, but the Host came out of the fire by itself. Desperate, he threw the Host into boiling water and the Host freed itself from the water hovering in mid-air and then taking the form of a crucifix. Finally, he deposited the Host in the bowl of a parishioner of Saint-Jean en-Grève who brought it to her parish priest. Over the centuries, the Host remained in a small reliquary in the church of Saint-Jean. During the French Revolution it was lost without a trace." Here are some other equally significant facts: The ecclesiastical authorities, the people and the king decided to transform the home of the one who desecrated the Host into a chapel where the Sacred Host would be kept; the confiscation of the house of Jonathas, called "The House of Miracles," by King Phillip the Fair which was registered in a bill of sale from 1291; the transformation of the house into an oratory after the Bull that was obtained from Pope Boniface VIII; the name of the "Rue du Dieu bouilli" (The Street of God-boiled) given by the people of Paris to the "Rue des Jardins"; the Eucharistic celebration in the Chapel des Billettes of the Department of the Reparation on the second Sundays of Advent and Lent.
