for the souls enrolled in our Parish Purgatorial Society is: June 5th, at 7 PM
Followed by Sacred Heart devotion & Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

Please come and spend some quiet moments adoring Our Savior present in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar and offering reparation to the Sacred Heart. May this be an opportunity of tremendous graces for our parish.

"If men only appreciated the value of the holy Mass they would need traffic officers at church doors every day to keep the crowds in order."
– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Prayer Before Mass
Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Daily Rosary
The Rosary is recited in the Church Monday through Saturday mornings at 7:25 AM.
All are welcome to come and pray!

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY, MAY 31ST, 2026

The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But I submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith.

Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? It may be interpreted as a finale to all the preceding feasts. All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for "God so loved the world as to give His only-begotten Son." The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He ever remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all sacred functions. After Christ's ascension the Holy Spirit, however, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, our Consoler. On solemn occasions a thanksgiving Te Deum rises spontaneously from Christian hearts.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity may well be regarded as the Church's Te Deum of gratitude over all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons; for this mystery is a synthesis of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost. This feast, which falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, should make us mindful that actually every Sunday is devoted to the honor of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God. Sunday after Sunday we should recall in a spirit of gratitude the gifts which the Blessed Trinity is bestowing upon us. The Father created and predestined us; on the first day of the week, He began the work of creation. The Son redeemed us; Sunday is the "Day of the Lord," the day of His resurrection. The Holy Spirit sanctified us, made us His temple; on Sunday the Holy Spirit descended upon the infant Church. Sunday, therefore, is the day of the Most Holy Trinity.

Gospel Activity

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Nicodemus
John 3:16-18

Family Activity Page

In this Sunday's Gospel, we learn that God loved us so very much that He sent His Son Jesus to teach the world how to love. Jesus gave His life so that we too might one day have life in Heaven with God. The Gospel teaches that God did not send Jesus to condemn the world, but instead to draw the world closer to Himself. In Jesus, and through Him, we have everlasting life. While we cannot completely understand the Blessed Trinity (this is called a "supernatural mystery"), we do know that God is Three Persons in One. God is Love. When we receive sanctifying grace in the sacraments, we are receiving the life of God (Who is love) in our souls. You have the love of God in your soul! How can you remember that in your day-to-day life? How can you share God's love with others?

Activities:

- Saint Patrick is often associated with teaching about the Blessed Trinity. The Lorica of Saint Patrick (his famous prayer) begins with a beautiful reminder of the Trinity. Pray it together as a family today (you can find it on EWTN.com).
- Ask your parents how they have experienced God's love in their life. What can you learn from their stories?
- Say the "Glory Be" as a family, reverently and slowly, in honor of today's feast day.

Q: WHERE IS THE HAIL MARY IN THE BIBLE?
A: The Hail Mary is broken up into two parts: 1. Who Mary is. 2. Our prayer to Mary. The first half of the Hail Mary (rows 1-5) is contained in Luke 1. The second half (rows 5-6) come from Luke 1, James 5 and various Biblical references. The Hail Mary is examined line by line:

THE HAIL MARY PRAYER

Prayer	Biblical Support		Explanations
Hail Mary, full of Grace	Luke 1:28	And coming to her, he said, "Hail, favored one! The Lord is with you."	The Angel Gabriel greets Mary with very respectful greeting used for royalty. The text doesn't say "Mary" after Hail but it is implied. Gabriel then proclaims Mary full of Grace (full of God's own life and love).
The Lord is with Thee	Luke 1:28	And coming to her, he said, "Hail, favored one! The Lord is with you."	This is the word for word. The Angel Gabriel said that the Lord is with Mary; She is full of His Grace. His own life.
Blessed art thou among women	Luke 1:42	-Cried out in a loud voice and said, "Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.	Elizabeth still inspired by the Holy Spirit: She is inspired by the 3rd person of the Blessed Trinity to proclaim that Mary is the most blessed among all women.
And blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus	Luke 1:42	-Cried out in a loud voice and said, "Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.	Elizabeth still inspired by the Holy Spirit proclaims that the fruit of Mary's womb, the developing Jesus, is blessed. The text doesn't say "Jesus" after womb, but it is implied the fruit of her womb is Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God	Luke 1:43	And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?	Mary is full of God's grace; this would make her holy. Mary is the mother of the Lord Jesus Christ who is the 2nd person of the Holy Trinity. Since Jesus is God this makes her the mother of God. She is the Mother of God-Man Jesus not the mother of the Trinity.
Pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of death	James 5:16	Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The fervent prayer of a righteous person is very powerful.	St. James tells Christians to pray for one another. All the baptized are members of the body of Christ (1 Cor 12:12-14). Therefore, it is right to pray for other members of the body. James goes on to say that the prayers of the righteous have great power. What human (other than Jesus) is more righteous that the Blessed Mother? Though she is in heaven, she still hears the prayers of her children on Earth and intercedes for them.

Eucharistic Miracle of FAVERNEY
FRANCE, 1608

On the Vigil of the Feast of Pentecost, the monks of Faverney decided to expose the Blessed Sacrament for public adoration. During the night, a fire flared up which destroyed the altar and the sacred furnishings, but not the monstrance containing the Sacred Host. The monstrance was retrieved after a few days while it was suspended in the air perfectly intact. The miraculous Host is still kept today and many are the pilgrims who every year hasten to venerate the miracle.

In the 17th century, Protestantism and Calvinism spread quickly in France by means of the many material benefits conceded by the new religions to the members of the nobility and the clergy coming from the Catholic Church. This placed at risk the faith of many and created many uncertainties even in the monasteries. In the city of Faverney there was a Benedictine Abbey whose monks had departed a great deal from the rule of their founder. They had only in high-esteem the devotion to the Lady of Notre-Dame la Blanche, known in all the area for its many miracles. Through her intercession many miracles had in fact been verified, among which was even the returning to life of two infants who were not yet baptized. In 1608, on the Vigil of the Feast of Pentecost, the monks decided to prepare an altar for the exposition and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. The lunette of the monstrance was very large, and because of this, they decided to put in two Hosts. When Vespers had finished the monks left the monstrance exposed on the provisional altar.

On the next morning, the sacristan opened the church and found it full of smoke, with the provisional altar completely reduced to ashes. He started to yell, and immediately the religious and other people hastened and proceeded to remove the ashes with the hope of finding some part of the monstrance. When the smoke began to clear, they were astonished seeing that the monstrance was suspended in the air. The multitude increased and crowded to see the Eucharistic marvel, in which the Hosts had remained unharmed regardless of the fire. The religious were astonished, and unable to make a decision, asked the counsel of the Capuchin friars of Vesoul. These immediately prepared a new altar over the burned one, and celebrated Holy Mass. During the elevation of the Host, the monstrance slowly descended upon the new altar. When the canonical process finished, on July 10, the Archbishop of Besançon declared that the Miracle was authentic, and on September 13, the Archbishop of Rodi – who was the nuncio in Brussels – made it known to Pope Paul V who granted a Bull of Indulgence. The miracle rekindled the faith of many. In 1862, the Congregation of Rites authorized the celebration of the Miracle. In 1908 the third centenary of the miracle was solemnly commemorated with a National Eucharistic Congress. Even today it is possible to see and venerate the relic containing one of the two Hosts which remained unharmed. The other Host, unfortunately, after it was donated to the Church of Dole, was destroyed by the revolutionaries in 1794.

Dear Friends:

I pray that you and your loved ones are experiencing love and hope this Easter season. Today, I am writing to ask you to share that love and hope with others by supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). Your gift, no matter what the amount, is so powerful and can make a difference in the lives of so many, including those in need of support and care.

Your gifts help support Catholic Charities' efforts to provide love, and care with dignity through their vast programs and ministries. Their Housing Department helps place seniors in housing, where they can have a safe and affordable place to call home.

Karen needed affordable housing when a Senior Advocate recommended that she apply to Catholic Charities Housing program. Temporarily living with her sister, an apartment came available at Bishop Ryan Village adjacent to St Rosalie Parish in Hampton Bays. Having Karen in a safe place to live is a comfort for her family and the fellowship amongst the community is a joy for Karen.

"I love living here, I feel safe, I have friends, and I am able to get involved with the Parish activities," shared Karen.

There are many other ministries funded by the CMA that bring hope and love to others. Pregnant mothers in need, seminarians, those studying for the Diaconate, and young people in Campus and Youth Ministry programs. I invite you to visit the website for the CMA to learn more about what the CMA does: https://www.catholicministriesappeal.org/.

Please know that I thank you for your consideration of this special request to make a gift to the 2026 Catholic Ministries Appeal. If you already made a gift and have received this letter in error, thank you!
