PRAYER BEFORE MASS
Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

DAILY ROSARY
The Rosary is recited in the Church Monday through Saturday mornings at 7:25 AM.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

SUNDAY, JUNE 7, 2026

The Catechism teaches that "by sending his only Son and the Spirit of Love in the fullness of time, God has revealed his innermost secret: God himself is an eternal exchange of love, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and he has destined us to share in that exchange" (221). "The complete Trinity dwells in us" (R.P. Philippon). By worshiping the Trinity, we realize the full truth of ourselves. "In the communion of grace with the Trinity, man's 'living area' is broadened and raised up to the supernatural level of divine life. Man, lives in God and by God" (St. John Paul II).

FEAST DAYS CELEBRATED THIS WEEK:

The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

Reminder: On Friday, June 12th is the Feast of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

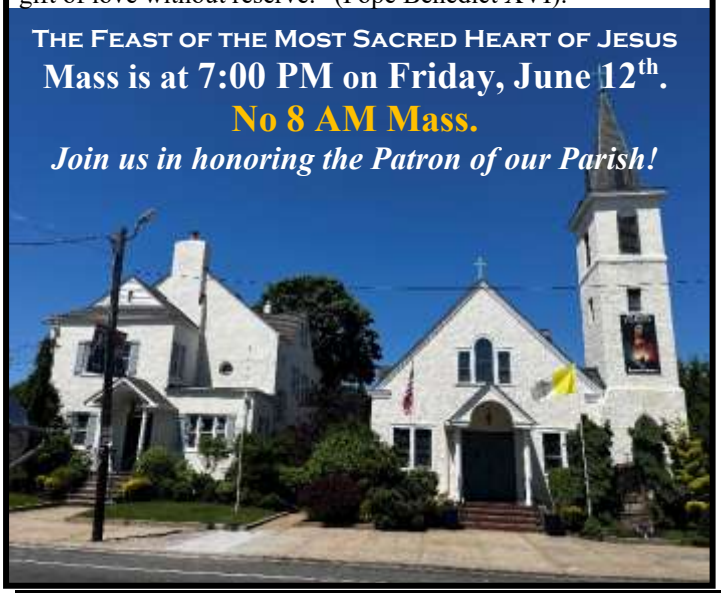
"The Term 'Sacred Heart of Jesus' denotes the entire mystery of Christ, the totality of his being, and his person…. Devotion to the Sacred Heart…calls for a fundamental attitude of conversion and reparation, of love and gratitude, apostolic commitment and dedication to Christ and his saving work" (Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy 166, 172). "The essential nucleus of Christianity is expressed in the Heart of Jesus; in Christ the whole of the revolutionary newness of the Gospel was revealed and given to us: the Love that saves us and already makes us live in God's eternity. Even our shortcomings, our limitations, and our weaknesses must lead us back to the Heart of Jesus. His divine Heart calls to our hearts, inviting us to come out of ourselves, to abandon our human certainties to trust in him and, following his example, to make of ourselves a gift of love without reserve." (Pope Benedict XVI).



The Immaculate Heart of Mary

(Saturday following the Second Sunday after Pentecost: June 13, 2025 – 8 a.m. Mass*)*

"Conquests and empires not founded on justice cannot be blessed by God… Nothing is lost by war," wrote Pope Pius XII on August 24, 1939. A week later Adolph Hitler unleased his army and opened fire on Poland. The Second World War had begun. On the radio, by letter and in person, the pope pleaded for peace. Nation after nation entered the war, and thousands were killed in battle daily.

It seemed the world needed someone whose heart could bear the sorrow of the Church and the world and bring comfort. Who other than Mary? The Mother of God possesses such a heart of charity that she wishes all people to love her Son and be saved. It was at this time in 1942 that Pope Pius XII consecrated the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and recommended this devotion. But this devotion is not just for times of war; it is for all times.

Mary's heart is a symbol of her love and her holiness. By honoring the heart of Mary, we honor her and ultimately God.

Mary loves each person, and when we dedicate ourselves to her Immaculate Heart, she will help each of us deepen our friendship with God. By coming to know the love of Mary, we will come to know better the overwhelming love of God. Today let us dedicate ourselves to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and confide to her all those intentions we have that most need her love and care.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

GOSPEL ACTIVITY

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

THE BREAD OF LIFE DISCOURSE

JOHN 6:51-58

FAMILY ACTIVITY PAGE:

Today's feast is also commonly called Corpus Christi, which is Latin for "Body of Christ". If you've grown up Catholic, you're likely very familiar with the Eucharist. You know that the bread and wine, after the words of consecration said by the priest, are no longer bread and wine. They look and smell and taste like bread and wine (we call these the 'appearances' of bread and wine), but the 'substance,' what they really are, is now Jesus Himself: Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. Just because you're familiar with it, though, doesn't mean you should take it for granted. Have you ever wished you could live at the time of Jesus? Maybe talk or walk with Him? See what He looks like or what His voice sounded like? Maybe you wish you could just be in the same room as Him. We can! Because the Eucharist is Jesus, whenever we are in the same room as the Eucharist, we are in the same room as Jesus! We can talk to Him and listen for what He says to us in the silence of our hearts. What a special gift!

What do you want to tell Jesus today?

ACTIVITIES:

● Saint Carlo Acutis (the first millennial saint who died in 2006) developed a website with a list of the Eucharistic miracles throughout the world. You can visit it at www.miracolieucaristici.org!

● Even if you aren't old enough to receive the Eucharist yet or can't make it to daily Mass, make a spiritual Communion! Click on the link for a beautiful act of Spiritual Communion: Act of Spiritual Communion Prayer | EWTN.

● Make a point to spend extra time with the Eucharist (whether in Adoration or with Jesus in the tabernacle) but do it! Go as a family and soak in the extra time with Jesus.

"May the Heart of Jesus, in the Most Blessed Sacrament, be praised, adored, and loved with grateful affection, at every moment in all the tabernacles of the world, even until the end of time. Amen."

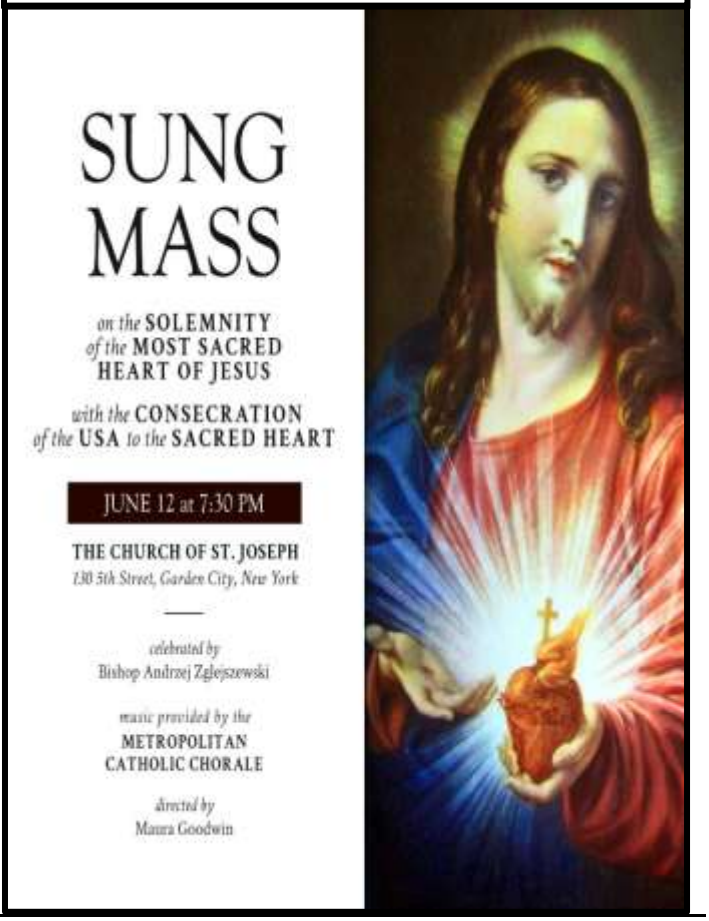
Whether you choose to give online or in person, your support is vital to the continued success of our church community. We are so grateful for your generosity and commitment to our shared mission.

Thank you again for all that you do.
Blessings,

Fr. John Tutoné, Pastor



In 1216 the village of Benningen was the location of Eucharistic miracle in which the Host bled. A few years later in 1221, the citizens of Benningen began the construction of a chapel in honor of this miracle which is known as Riedkapellez um Hochwürdigen Gut.

From 1674 to 1718 the Riedkapellez was rebuilt and enlarged to accommodate the large number of pilgrims. Each year, during the Feast of Corpus Domini (Corpus Christi), the parish of Benningen makes a procession to the Riedkapellez, to celebrate the commemoration of the miracle.

An Ancient document of 1216 tells the story of two millers who, for years, had been at odds with each other. One day, one of them, exasperated by yet another argument, received Holy Communion and then afterwards stole a consecrated Host that he then hid among the stones of the mill of his neighbor with the intent of slandering him. During the Feast of St. Gregory, the Host began to bleed so profusely that all of the village and the Bishop learned about it.

The blasphemous miller repented and confessed his misdeed. The paintings of the chapel built in honor of the miracle were done by Johann Friedrich Sichelbein to illustrate the story. The portrait above the altar shows the Bishop of Augsburg, Frederich, who deposited the Host in a precious container in the Church of St. Martin in Memmingen. In the course of the centuries, owing to historical events, the traces of the precious relic were lost. For a long time, it was believed that the paintings that adorn the Chapel were copies of those exhibited in the Monastery of Ottobeuren. Only during the restoration of 1987 was it discovered that the paintings were the originals. On the wooden ceiling there are frescoes illustrating the Passion of Christ and scenes from the Old and New Testaments.

WHY DO CATHOLICS FAST BEFORE HOLY COMMUNION?

In Scripture, fasting often prepared people for something important – an encounter with God or a sacred mission, as in Jesus' forty days in the desert. Because we are both body and soul, the Church asks us to prepare physically and spiritually for Holy Communion, including through a one-hour Eucharistic fast. This practice deepens our awareness of our hunger for God and our dependence upon Him, while serving as a prayerful expression of reverence for Christ truly present in the Eucharist.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that Thou art present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love Thee above all things and I desire Thee in my soul. Since I cannot now receive Thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though thou wert already there, I embrace Thee and unite myself wholly to Thee; permit not that I should ever be separated from Thee.
- (St. Alphonsus Maria de' Liguori).

PRAYER AFTER HOLY COMMUNION – ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, embolden me.
Water from the side of Christ,
wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Never permit me to be parted from you.
From the evil Enemy defend me.
At the hour of my death call me
and bid me come to you,
that with your Saints I may praise you for age upon age.

Amen. [USCCB]

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE - DAILY

The daily examination of conscience is an ancient Catholic practice. It's very simple, and it's designed to help us identify our sins and weaknesses so that we can improve and grow stronger in the spiritual life, while providing an excellent ongoing preparation for regular Confession. It consists of taking a few minutes at the end of the day to prayerfully review our actions in the light of God's commandments, followed by the Act of Contrition.

Reflect on the victories and losses

Actively reflecting on the high and low points of the day can help you live more intentionally and bring a renewed sense of resolve into the following day.

- Review your actions, words, and thoughts today. Did you actively guard yourself against temptation? Where did sin creep in?
- In what moments did you practice virtue and moral courage?
- Were you attuned to the Holy Spirit's promptings today? Where did you feel His inspiration?
- Ask Him for the graces necessary to follow His Will more purposefully tomorrow.

Act of Contrition

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell. But most of all because they offed Thee, my God, Who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

Practice gratitude

It is God's love that has brought you into existence and to this exact moment. Practice looking for His hand in your day.

- Where did you feel His loving gaze upon you today?
- What people or moments helped you see God in your life?
- Thank God for all these moments!
- Ask Him to help you recognize His blessings and providence tomorrow.

Renew your commitment to Christ

Remember: our Faith is founded upon a Person—Christ! Renew your personal love and devotion to Him.

- Thank God for the gift of His Son Jesus and our call to be His disciples.
- Tell the Lord of your desire to know Christ more personally.
- If possible, set an intention for your day tomorrow Ask Our Lord to guide you in this act.

Pray a Hail Mary, Our Father, or another beloved prayer.

"What gives rise in parents to the desire to bring children into the world is not a necessity to have something, but a desire to give".
– Pope Leo XIV

Every day, people in our community are helped because of support from funds raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Thanks to your support we are able to help dads in need!

Today, consider a dad like Paul. Paul saw information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal at his local parish, and he knew he had to turn to the Church for help since he had nowhere else to go. Paul had been gainfully employed for more than 10 years when he began to fall ill. Soon his medical issues made it impossible for him to keep working and he was forced to go out on disability.

After paying the co-pays on his medications, his family's rent and utilities bills, Paul had very little left to purchase food and other necessities for his family.

It was hard for him to ask for help, but with nowhere else to turn, he did. Catholic Charities found him a specialist who assessed the family's needs and directed them to appropriate resources in their community. He went to his Parish Outreach, where his family received food that allowed them to make it through the month. Paul and his family received the help they so desperately needed.

Today, Paul is back to work and the family is doing well. "I am so thankful that I know there is somewhere I can turn, where there are people that care, people I can talk to, if I am ever in such a situation again," shared Paul.
