– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Prayer Before Mass
Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Daily Rosary
The Rosary is recited in the Church
Monday through Saturday mornings at 7:25 AM.
All are welcome to come and pray!

Miss Andrea

Have there ever been two miraculous events in the history of the world so similar and so important as the miracle of fire described in the Book of Kings and the miracle of the sun, which took place at Fatima on Oct. 13, 1917?

We are still so close to the miracle of Fatima that we may not yet adequately appreciate it in the perspective of the great promise: "An era of peace will be granted to mankind." But we are sufficiently removed in history to appreciate the similar miracle described in the Book of Kings, which marked a high point in the history of the people of God. They had been on the verge of annihilation (this time not from a flood, but from a prolonged drought sent by God as a punishment for their idolatry). By the miracle of Mount Carmel, they were converted and saved.

MIRACLE ON MOUNT CARMEL

Elijah, that great prophet with whom Jesus appeared at His Transfiguration on Mount Tabor, had proclaimed to the people that if they did not destroy the idols and return to God, they would be severely punished. When the prophet's words were not heeded, the punishment came. Facing the death of his people, when the King sent for Elijah, the holy man said: "Gather unto me all Israel on Mount Carmel, and with them the pagan prophets who eat at the Queen's table: four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and four hundred prophets of the groves." (1 Kgs 18:19) Then an incredible "contest" was proposed by the prophet on Mount Carmel "to prove that God is God."

The 450 pagan priests would erect an altar and place a sacrifice upon it and pray to the pagan gods to send fire from Heaven to consume the sacrifice. And he, the sole prophet of God, would also build an altar and place a sacrifice upon it. He would also fill a trench at the base of the altar with water. Then he would call upon the one true God to send fire from Heaven.

The contest between God and anti-god lasted an entire day. The pagan prophets danced around their altar cutting themselves with lancets, crying out to Baal to prove his power. But hour after hour their sacrifice simply dried under the blistering heat of the sun, which had not been covered by a cloud for three and a half years.

Towards the end of the day, as the pagan priests were falling exhausted around the pile of stones upon which they had laid their sacrifice, Elijah looked up to Heaven and voiced a single prayer. Fire came down from Heaven and consumed not only the sacrifice of Elijah but the very stones of his altar and the water on the ground around it.

The nation fell to its knees crying: "The Lord is God! The Lord is God!" (1 Kgs 18:39)

As we said above, this Mount Carmel miracle [perhaps the greatest of all the miracles of the Old Testament] is amazingly similar to the miracle of the sun at Fatima at the climax of which Our Lady appeared as Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

Dear Parishioners,

We want to start by expressing gratitude for your unwavering support and generosity towards our church. Your contributions have been essential to our ability to continue carrying out our mission and serving the needs of our community.

We also want to take this opportunity to introduce our new e-giving platform, Vanco. This platform provides a secure and user-friendly way to give to our church online, and we are confident that it will make giving more convenient for many members of our congregation.

The link is available on our website, (www.sacredheartislandpark.com) under the GIVE tab. Please create an account on Vanco before contributing. This way you will create a transaction history for your tax receipt.

Whether you choose to give online or in person, your support is vital to the continued success of our church community. We are so grateful for your generosity and commitment to our shared mission.

Thank you again for all that you do.
Blessings,

Fr. John Tutoné, Pastor

ST. MARY MAGDALENE

A woman that was a sinner in the city brought an alabaster box of ointment, and standing at the feet of the Lord, began to wash His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head.
(Antiphon at the Magnificat – Second Vespers)

On his journeys, Jesus is accompanied by "the Twelve and some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities," among them "Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out" (Lk 8:2). Following Jesus brings Mary to Golgotha, where she witnesses his death and burial. Three days later, she meets Jesus outside the empty tomb. She hastens to tell the disciples: "I have seen the Lord!" Tradition names Mary Magdalene "the apostle to the Apostles": "Just as a woman had announced the words of death to the first man, so also a woman was the first to announce to the Apostles the words of life." Feast Day: July 22nd (St. Thomas Aquinas)

ST. JAMES THE GREAT APOSTLE

St. James the Greater, son of Zebedee and brother of St. John the Evangelist, was one of the twelve apostles chosen by Jesus Christ. Alongside his brother and St. Peter, James was part of the inner circle of Jesus' disciples, witnessing key events such as the Transfiguration and the agony in the Garden of Gethsemane.
James and his brother earned the nickname "Sons of Thunder" for their fiery zeal and dedication to Christ. James was present at pivotal moments in Jesus' ministry, including his healing miracles and teachings. He also followed Jesus to Jerusalem during his final journey, despite knowing the dangers that awaited them.

After Jesus' resurrection and ascension, James played a prominent role in the early Christian community. He preached the Gospel fervently, especially in Spain, where tradition holds that he evangelized and established the Christian faith. James' missionary efforts were marked by miracles and conversions, earning him the title "Matamoros" (Moorslayer) for his supposed intervention at the Battle of Clavijo.

James eventually returned to Judea, where he faced persecution for his faith. He was martyred by King Herod Agrippa I in AD 44, becoming the first apostle to be martyred for Christ.

Practical Lessons

1. Zeal for the Gospel: St. James' fervent dedication to spreading the Gospel teaches us the importance of zeal and commitment in our own faith journey. His fearless proclamation of Christ's message challenges us to boldly witness to our faith and to share the love of God with others.
2. Perseverance in Faith: James' steadfastness in following Jesus, even unto death, serves as a reminder of the importance of perseverance and endurance in the face of trials and hardships. His example encourages us to remain faithful to Christ and to trust in God's providence, no matter the challenges we encounter.

Prayer

O glorious Saint James, who by your fervent zeal and powerful intercession has been crowned with martyrdom, we beseech you to obtain for us from the Lord, our God, the grace to persevere in faith and to spread the Gospel with courage and love. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. (St. James - Catholic Exchange)

Pastor - Exorcist - Speaker

Father Daniel Reehil was born in Mineola, NY. After graduating from the University of Dayton, he worked in Global Trade and Finance in Manhattan for American Express and Citicorp for ten years.

In 1998, he experienced a miraculous conversion after being away from the Church for twenty years. This planted the seeds of his vocation to the priesthood.

He was ordained on July 26, 2014, and now serves as pastor of St. Catherine of Siena in Columbia, Tennessee, and has been appointed as an exorcist for the Diocese of Nashville. He is also Director of Radio Maria USA and hosts a program called "Battle Ready with Fr. Dan Reehil".

Dear Friends:

As we begin to enjoy all that summer on Long Island offers us, I write to ask you to prayerfully consider making a gift to this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can bring that joy to those who come to us for help and support in these uncertain times.

While more than 20,000 of our neighbors from across the Diocese have generously responded with their gifts and prayers, there are still so many ministries that need our support.

Pope Leo XIV urged us to reflect on how we invest the "treasure" that is our life, challenging Catholics to share not only material possessions but also their skills, time, and compassion for the good of others.

Here on Long Island, the Catholic Ministries Appeal is one of the best local vehicles we can use to reach out and show mercy, compassion, and charity to others. Not only does your gift help our very own Parish Outreach Programs feed and serve the poor, but it also sustains programs and services offered by Catholic Charities across the Diocese. Such active efforts ensure that the recipients are comforted with the knowledge that God loves them and is with them even during challenging times in their lives.

Even more, the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports the services that provide religious education for our children, form our future priests and deacons, make available youth and campus ministry programs, and so many other important works that help us to share the Gospel message in our Diocese and beyond.

In gratitude for your prayerful consideration of a gift to the 2026 Catholic Ministries Appeal, be assured of my conviction that together we can bring Christ's message of holiness to individuals, families, and the wider community.

Thank you for embracing the mission of the Church. I will keep you and your family in my Masses and prayers.

If you have already given a gift to the 2026 Catholic Ministries Appeal, thank you for your gift!

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres
