– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Prayer Before Mass
Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Daily Rosary
The Rosary is recited in the Church

Two Miraculous Events: Mount Carmel, Fatima and the Rain of Graces

Have there ever been two miraculous events in the history of the world so similar and so important as the miracle of fire described in the Book of Kings and the miracle of the sun, which took place at Fatima on Oct. 13, 1917?

We are still so close to the miracle of Fatima that we may not yet adequately appreciate it in the perspective of the great promise: "An era of peace will be granted to mankind." But we are sufficiently removed in history to appreciate the similar miracle described in the Book of Kings, which marked a high point in the history of the people of God. They had been on the verge of annihilation (this time not from a flood, but from a prolonged drought sent by God as a punishment for their idolatry). By the miracle of Mount Carmel, they were converted and saved.

PART 2: THE FATIMA MIRACLE

In the case of the miracle of fire on Mount Carmel, did it seem to the crowd as though the fire of the sun suddenly came down upon the mountain? And with the fire so intense that it actually melted the rocks, did the people around feel its heat? Were they terrified at such a sight? What was the impression of this great manifestation of God's power, which so touched each one individually that with great conviction and emotion they all cried out: "The Lord is God! The Lord is God!"

In the case of the fire which came down from the sky in Fatima, we have the testimony of thousands of witnesses. They all testified: A fireball appeared in the sky which everyone thought to be actually the sun itself. It plunged towards the earth causing the tens of thousands of witnesses to think it was going to consume everyone and everything.

Most of the some 100,000 witnesses were stricken with fear. All thought it was the end of the world. After it was over, there was an extraordinary climax, almost as impressive to the crowd as the fire itself:

It had been raining for many hours before the miracle. Most of the people's clothing was thoroughly wet. Some of them were standing in puddles of water when the "sun" seemed to plunge from the sky. The Cova of Fatima was a veritable sea of water and mud. Yet suddenly everything was entirely dry.

As the miracle on Mount Carmel, the water had instantly evaporated from the heat of the great fire, which came down from the sky over the mountain at Fatima. Only after talking over and over with many witnesses did the present writer even begin to realize what really happened at Fatima and what the tens of thousands of witnesses meant when they said they thought the sun itself had come hurtling down onto the earth. But they were not blinded despite its brilliance, and they were not burned by the heat of it. Yet the water—a veritable sea of deep puddles and mud—dried instantly. All the witnesses of this miracle testified that they were at once dry and clean. Thus, the miracle which had been witnessed by so many thousands became completely personal. Each individual had experienced a miracle within himself and herself which could leave no possible doubt that the Mother of Jesus had kept her promise to perform a miracle "so that all may believe."

At the climax of the great miracle of Fatima, Our Lady appeared in the sky a final time as Our Lady of Mount Carmel!

Portugal at that time was ruled by atheists who had vowed to wipe out religion within two generations. They tried to destroy the place of the apparitions. They imprisoned the children to whom Our Lady appeared and threatened them with death. The contest, as on Mount Carmel of old, was between God and anti-god.

The impact on Portugal and the world in 1917 was not immediately apparent, as was the impact of the miracle on Mount Carmel for Israel at the time of Elijah. The miracle of Fatima was for the entire world, about to be engulfed in a worldwide militantly atheistic revolution starting at that very moment in Russia.

It was a miracle opening a new era in which God declared that He would establish in the world devotion to the Immaculate Heart, an era in which her Immaculate Heart would triumph and bring about the reign of the Eucharistic Jesus to such an extent that there would be "an era of peace for all mankind."

Perhaps we may better understand what may happen now by looking at what happened at the time of Elijah. After sending his servant to look over the sea six times, each time the servant returns and reports, "There is nothing." Suddenly the servant returns a seventh time and reports there is a single cloud rising out of the sea in the shape of a human foot! Upon hearing this, Elias rises and announces to the king and the people to hasten to their homes "lest the rains overtake them." The divine punishment of three and a half years of drought is about to end!

Fathers and doctors of the Church have interpreted the foot-shaped cloud seen rising from the sea at the foot of Mount Carmel as a symbol of the Immaculate, rising pure out of the sea of humankind to bring forth the Savior of the world, crushing the head of the serpent beneath her heel and bringing the saving rain of grace.

THE SIGN – THE SCAPULAR

By the Mount Carmel miracle in the Old Testament and the Miracle at Fatima in 1917 with the final appearance of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, we are brought face to face with the mystery of devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, a sea of grace, and a supreme manifestation of God's love in the world. Devotion to Our Lady of Mount Carmel is practiced through the wearing of a small garment—the Scapular. Our Lady gave it as a sign of salvation in 1251 with the words: "Whosoever dies clothed in this shall not suffer eternal fire."

The World Apostolate of Fatima encourages all to wear the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel as a sign of their entrustment to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and to live out the consecration it signifies.

Saints Joachim & Anne
Parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary

St. Joachim & St. Anne (1st c. B.C.) are the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the maternal grandparents of Jesus. Their names have been preserved in Church tradition since the second century, although little is known of their lives. It is believed that St. Joachim and St. Anne, although wealthy, lived a devout and simple life of voluntary poverty, chastity, and generosity to the poor. According to legend, after long years of suffering from infertility and praying for a child, Joachim and Anne were each separately visited by an angel in their old age, who announced that they would give birth to a very special child. Their moment of joy at this happy news is depicted with their embrace and a kiss at the Golden Gate in Jerusalem. It was from their holy and chaste marriage that the Immaculate Conception was brought into the world. According to tradition, when the Child Mary was three years old, they dedicated her to God and presented her to live in the Jerusalem temple until the time of her betrothal to St. Joseph. St. Anne is the patroness of unmarried women, wives, expectant mothers, pregnancy, women in labor, grandmothers, childless couples, and against poverty and sterility. Women praying to meet their future spouse often turn to St. Anne. St. Joachim is the patron of fathers and grandfathers.

Their feast day is July 26th.

Saint Martha
(First Century)

One of the most precious things in life is to have a home where you can go at any time and find people who accept, love, and understand you. Jesus found such a home in Bethany, at the house of Martha, Mary, and Lazarus. Martha welcomed Jesus and served him, and they developed a special bond of friendship.

Martha lived with her sister Mary. Like many sisters, these two women were very different in personality. Martha was energetic and outspoken, while Mary was quiet and reflective. Jesus loved both of them and appreciated the gifts that each one had. The Gospel of Luke records that once, when Jesus was visiting, Martha came to him with a problem and with her own solution. She was frustrated by all the work she was doing. Her solution was to get her sister Mary to help. After all, Mary was just sitting at the feet of Jesus hanging on every word he said. Martha wanted Jesus to tell Mary to help with the chores. But Jesus saw the situation differently. He showed Martha that because she was worrying so much, she did not have time to enjoy being with him and learning from him.

Another time Martha and Mary sent a message to Jesus that their brother, Lazarus, was ill. They knew Jesus would come and cure him; they trusted in his loving care for them. But when Jesus finally comes, Lazarus had already been dead for four days. As soon as she heard that Jesus was nearby, Martha a woman of action, went out to meet him, while Mary stayed in the house. In her grief over the loss of her brother, Martha told Jesus honestly what she had expected from him. "Lord," she said, "if you had been here, my brother would not have died!" Jesus calmly told Martha that her brother would rise again. He asked Martha to believe that he had power to give eternal life to all who believe in him. Though this is a great mystery, Martha trusted Jesus totally and said, "I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world" (John 11:27). That day Jesus raised her brother, Lazarus, from the dead to show that he has power over life and death and the power to give eternal life.

The home Jesus found in Bethany was not only in the house but in the faithful heart of a woman named Martha.

2026 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

"Together, as one people, as brothers and sisters, let us walk towards God and love one another."
- Pope Leo XIV

SHARING THE GOSPEL WITH OTHERS

Dear Friends:

As we begin to enjoy all that summer on Long Island offers us, I write to ask you to prayerfully consider making a gift to this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can bring that joy to those who come to us for help and support in these uncertain times.

While more than 20,000 of our neighbors from across the Diocese have generously responded with their gifts and prayers, there are still so many ministries that need our support.

Pope Leo XIV urged us to reflect on how we invest the "treasure" that is our life, challenging Catholics to share not only material possessions but also their skills, time, and compassion for the good of others.

Here on Long Island, the Catholic Ministries Appeal is one of the best local vehicles we can use to reach out and show mercy, compassion, and charity to others. Not only does your gift help our very own Parish Outreach Programs feed and serve the poor, but it also sustains programs and services offered by Catholic Charities across the Diocese. Such active efforts ensure that the recipients are comforted with the knowledge that God loves them and is with them even during challenging times in their lives.

Even more, the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports the services that provide religious education for our children, form our future priests and deacons, make available youth and campus ministry programs, and so many other important works that help us to share the Gospel message in our Diocese and beyond.

In gratitude for your prayerful consideration of a gift to the 2026 Catholic Ministries Appeal, be assured of my conviction that together we can bring Christ's message of holiness to individuals, families, and the wider community.

Thank you for embracing the mission of the Church. I will keep you and your family in my Masses and prayers.

If you have already given a gift to the 2026 Catholic Ministries Appeal, thank you for your gift!

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres

Most Reverend John O. Barres
