"If men only appreciated the value of the holy Mass, they would need traffic officers at church doors every day to keep the crowds in order."
– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Daily Rosary

The Rosary is recited in the Church Monday through Saturday mornings at 7:25 AM.
All are welcome to come and pray!

Dear Parishioners,

We want to start by expressing gratitude for your unwavering support and generosity towards our church. Your contributions have been essential to our ability to continue carrying out our mission and serving the needs of our community.

We also want to take this opportunity to introduce our new e-giving platform, Vanco. This platform provides a secure and user-friendly way to give to our church online, and we are confident that it will make giving more convenient for many members of our congregation.

The link is available on our website, (www.sacredheartislandpark.com) under the GIVE tab. Please create an account on Vanco before contributing. This way you will create a transaction history for your tax receipt.

Whether you choose to give online or in person, your support is vital to the continued success of our church community. We are so grateful for your generosity and commitment to our shared mission.

Thank you again for all that you do.
Blessings,

Fr. John Tutoné, Pastor

The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary

In 1954 Pope Pius XII declared a feast day honoring Mary as Queen of heaven and earth. But "queen" is one of the oldest titles given to Mary in Christian tradition. When Elizabeth spoke of Mary as "the mother of my Lord" (Luke 1.43), she used the words that mean "queen mother" in the Old Testament.

Jesus is the Lord and King of heaven and earth. So, Mary who was chosen by the Father, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and became the mother of Christ, can be considered queen. Like a queen, she stood at the cross on Calvary, supporting her kingly Son's sacrifice with her love, faith, and obedience.

After being raised body and soul to heaven, Mary now sits in splendor at the right hand of her Son. There she intercedes for us. We ponder this whenever we pray the Fifth Glorious Mystery of the Rosary, Mary's coronation as Queen of Heaven.

Mary's power as queen is manifested in the tenderness of a loving mother who cares for her children. Saint Bernard of Clairvaux (feast August 20), who had a great devotion to Mary, often wrote books and sermons that inspired his listeners to turn to her. For example:

> In dangers, in doubts, in difficulties, think of Mary, call upon Mary…with her for guide, you shall never go astray; while invoking her, you shall never loose heart; so long as she is in your mind, you are saved from deception; while she holds your hand, you cannot fall; under her protection you have nothing to fear…

Artists depict Mary being crowned by her Son, or sometimes by God the Father. In either case, as Mother of the King of Kings and by her role in redemption, Mary is Queen of the Universe.

Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth,
Queen of the Universe,
Pray for us.

Our Lady of Knock
The Miraculous Silent Apparition

On a rainy evening in August 1879, in the small village of Knock, County Mayo, Ireland, an extraordinary event occurred that would forever change the spiritual landscape of the Emerald Isle. Fifteen villagers, ranging from young children to the elderly, witnessed what they described as a heavenly vision outside their local parish church.

The scene they beheld was both awe-inspiring and unique. An altar appeared, adorned with a cross and a lamb, surrounded by hovering angels. Beside this celestial altar stood three figures: the Virgin Mary, clothed in white with a golden crown; St. Joseph, standing to her right; and St. John the Evangelist, positioned to her left, holding what appeared to be a book.

What sets the Knock apparition apart from other Marian visions is its silent nature. Unlike the apparitions at Lourdes or Fatima, where the Virgin Mary spoke to the visionaries, the figures at Knock remained completely silent and motionless. For about two hours, they stood as still as statues, allowing the gathered crowd to observe them in reverent wonder.

This vision came at a crucial time in Irish history. The country was still reeling from the effects of the Great Famine and facing ongoing economic hardships. Many Irish Catholics viewed the apparition as a message of hope and divine comfort during these trying times.

After a century of investigation and scrutiny, the Catholic Church officially recognized the apparition in 1979. This recognition solidified Our Lady of Knock's place in Catholic devotion, and she became known as Our Lady Queen of Ireland.

Today, the Knock Shrine stands as one of Ireland's most important pilgrimage sites, attracting over 1.5 million visitors annually. Pilgrims come from all over the world to pray, seek healing, and experience the peace that permeates this holy place.

The Catholic Church celebrates the Feast of Our Lady of Knock annually on August 21st, commemorating the date of the apparition in 1879.

The novena typically begins on August 13th and concludes on August 21st. During this time, pilgrims and faithful around the world join in prayer, seeking Our Lady of Knock's intercession and reflecting on the message of hope symbolized by her silent apparition.

Novena to Our Lady of Knock

Give praise to the Father Almighty,
to His Son, Jesus Christ the Lord,
to the Spirit, Who lives in our hearts,
both now and forever. Amen.

Our Lady of Knock, Queen of Ireland, you gave hope to your people in a time of distress, and comforted them in sorrow. You have inspired countless pilgrims to pray with confidence to your divine Son, remembering His promise, "Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find."

Help me to remember that we are all pilgrims on the road to heaven. Fill me with love and concern for my brothers and sisters in Christ, especially those who live with me. Comfort me when I am sick, lonely or depressed.

Teach me how to take part ever more reverently in the Holy Mass. Give me a greater love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Pray for me now, and at the hour of my death. Amen.

Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world,
have mercy of us.
Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.

St. Joseph,
chosen by God to be the husband of Mary,
the protector of the Holy Family, the guardian of the Church,
protect our families in their work and recreation,
and guard us on our journey through life.
(Repeat – Lamb of God, etc.)

St. John,
beloved disciple of the Lord, faithful priest,
teacher of the Word of God, help us to hunger for the Word,
to be loyal to the Mass and to love one another.
(Repeat – Lamb of God, etc.)

Our Lady of Knock, pray for us.
Refuge of Sinners, pray for us.
Queen assumed into Heaven, pray for us.
Mother of Nazareth, pray for us.
Queen of Virgins, pray for us.
Help of Christians, pray for us.
Health of the Sick, pray for us.
Queen of Peace, pray for us.
Our Lady, Queen and Mother, pray for us.
Our Lady, Mother of the Church, pray for us.

(Here mention your own special intentions)

With the angels and saints let us pray:
give praise to the Father Almighty,
to His Son, Jesus Christ the Lord,
to the Spirit, Who lives in our hearts,
both now and forever. Amen.

Our Lady of the Snows

On the night of August 4-5 in the year 358, a miracle took place in answer to a prayer.

A Roman patrician by the name of John and his wife had been praying to the Blessed Virgin, asking her what to do with their wealth. Childless, they desired to give their entire fortune to Our Lady but needed to know what the Blessed Mother would have them do with it.

That night in a dream, the Blessed Virgin appeared to them and told that she wanted a church to be built on the Esquiline hill in Rome, and that she would show them where the church was to be built by covering the area with snow. Our Lady also appeared that night in a dream to Pope Liberius, telling him of her desire that a church be built and instructing him to go to the same hill.

The next day both arrived at the hill to find an exact area covered with snow, an extraordinary miracle in the hot, muggy Roman month of August. The area the snow covered was marked off and Pope Liberius ordered that construction begin immediately on a new church. This church was to become known as St. Mary Major, which soon became the most important church dedicated to the Blessed Virgin in the West.

This great Marian miracle is still celebrated by the Church today. As the Vatican Information Service reports, St. Mary Major's Basilica held their traditional triduum between August 1 and 3, and will also hold an additional two days of celebration on August 4 and 5 in commemoration of the miracle of the snow and the building of Our Lady's greatest church in the Western world. Let us join our hearts and minds with those in Rome to celebrate this very special feast day, praying that Our Blessed Mother will continue to rain down graces all over the world for her poor children who are so desperately in need her prayers and her maternal presence. Our Mother of all Peoples, Our Lady of the Snows, pray for us.

Dear Friends:

As we begin to enjoy all that summer on Long Island offers us, I write to ask you to prayerfully consider making a gift to this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can bring that joy to those who come to us for help and support in these uncertain times.

While more than 20,000 of our neighbors from across the Diocese have generously responded with their gifts and prayers, there are still so many ministries that need our support.

Pope Leo XIV urged us to reflect on how we invest the "treasure" that is our life, challenging Catholics to share not only material possessions but also their skills, time, and compassion for the good of others.

Here on Long Island, the Catholic Ministries Appeal is one of the best local vehicles we can use to reach out and show mercy, compassion, and charity to others. Not only does your gift help our very own Parish Outreach Programs feed and serve the poor, but it also sustains programs and services offered by Catholic Charities across the Diocese. Such active efforts ensure that the recipients are comforted with the knowledge that God loves them and is with them even during challenging times in their lives.

Even more, the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports the services that provide religious education for our children, form our future priests and deacons, make available youth and campus ministry programs, and so many other important works that help us to share the Gospel message in our Diocese and beyond.

In gratitude for your prayerful consideration of a gift to the 2026 Catholic Ministries Appeal, be assured of my conviction that together we can bring Christ's message of holiness to individuals, families, and the wider community.

Thank you for embracing the mission of the Church. I will keep you and your family in my Masses and prayers.

If you have already given a gift to the 2026 Catholic Ministries Appeal, thank you for your gift!

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres
