Prayer Before Mass
Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

The Rosary is recited in the Church

Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael (Archangels)

God has numerous ways to show his loving concern for us. One of these is through the angels. God has sent angels to intervene in people's lives when they need protection on their way to heaven. The Archangels, Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, are three such messengers.

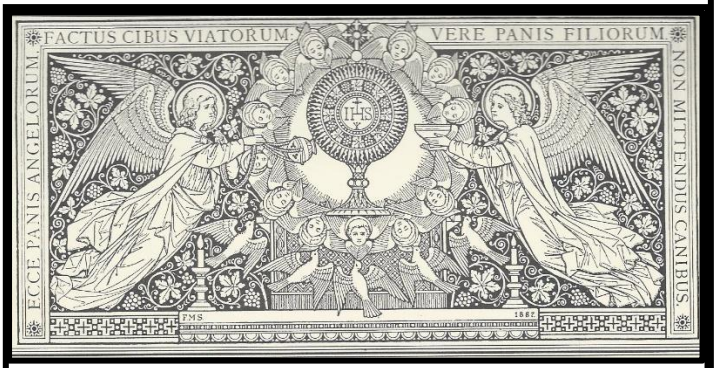
In art St. Michael is usually pictured as youthful, strong, clothed in armor, and wearing sandals. Biblical accounts of Michael present him as a mighty leader bringing justice and strength. The Book of Daniel describes him as a heavenly prince who stands guard over God's people, helping the Israelites return from their Persian captivity. Michael, who name means "Who is like God?" is the principal fighter in the battle against Lucifer, or Satan, as related in the Book of Revelations. The early Christians of the second century took courage from these accounts. They believed that Michael's intercession was powerful in rescuing souls from hell. In the fourth century, Emperor Constantine built a church to honor Michael.

Art depicting Gabriel most often shows him as communicating God's message. Biblically he is portrayed in three events as a messenger. In the first he explains to Daniel a vision he had concerning the Messiah. Another time Gabriel comes to Zachary, who is burning incense in the temple, and tells him that John the Baptist will be born. But most people associate Gabriel with the Annunciation and his message to Mary of the birth of Jesus. Gabriel's name means "Strength of God."

The archangel Raphael is pictured as the traveling companion of a young man, Tobiah, who is carrying a fish! A blind man named Tobit sends his son Tobiah on a journey to collect a debt. He asks Raphael (they don't know he is an angel) to be the young man's companion and guide. After an adventure-filled journey, Tobiah collects the debt, finds a bride, and restores Tobit's sight with the fish's gall. You can read the whole exciting story in the Book of Tobit in the Old Testament.

Tobit's family credits the success of the journey and the healing to the presence of Raphael. When they offer Raphael a reward, he announces who he is: "I am Raphael, one of the seven angels who stand ready and enter before the glory of the Lord" (Tobit 12:15). Since it was through Raphael that Tobit was cured of his blindness, the angel's name means "God's healing" or "God has healed."

Because the archangels are very close to God, the Church urges people to pray to them to help them in their needs. In times of temptation, people pray to Michael; to know and carry out God's will, you can call on Gabriel; and travelers and those seeking healing turn to Raphael. In a mysterious and powerful way, the angels protect the Church and her people. They assure us that God cares for and is with us.



The Holy Guardian Angels

The guardian angel concept is clearly present in the Old Testament, The Old Testament conceived of God's angels as his ministers who carried out his wishes, and who were at times given special commissions. The function of the guardian angel is to lead men to the Kingdom of Heaven. Belief in guardian angels can be traced throughout all antiquity. A guardian angel is an angel assigned to protect and guide a particular person or group. Guardian angels serve to protect whichever person God assigns them to, and present prayer to God on that person's behalf. Padre Pio was known to instruct his parishioners to send him their guardian angel to communicate a trouble or issue to him when they could not travel to get to him.

Prayer to the Guardian Angel

Guardian Angel, protector of my soul and body, to your care I have been entrusted by Christ. Obtain for me the forgiveness of the sins I have committed today. Protect me from the snares of my enemy, that I may never again offend God by sin. Pray for me, your sinful and unworthy servant that, through your help, I may become worthy of the grace and mercy of the most Holy Trinity and of the Immaculate Mother of our Lord God, Jesus Christ.

Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."
-St. Jerome

Eucharistic Miracle of

ALBORAYA-ALMÁCERA

SPAIN, 1348

In 1348, a priest while on his way to visit some sick people in order to bring them Communion, slipped in the waters of a small river that he was crossing and overturned the ciborium which contained some consecrated Hosts. The poor priest, who had by now resigned himself to the loss, heard himself being called by some fishermen a short distance away inviting him to come closer to the shore in order to see several fish with discs in their mouth which appeared to be Hosts. The particles were immediately recovered and brought back to the church in a solemn procession in which the whole village participated.

In 1348, in the town of Alboraya-Almácera, a Eucharistic miracle occurred which seemed to recall episodes in the life of Saint Francis that demonstrate how, if men were to fully live in the grace of God, all God's creatures would live in harmony.

A priest, carrying a ciborium containing the Viaticum (sacrament) destined for some sick people, was crossing a river on mule-back when he was suddenly swept off his mount by a rushing wave. The priest tumbled into the water along with his ciborium, which was emptied of its precious content. The Hosts fell out and were being carried away by the current toward the mouth of the river nearby. The priest, barely saving himself, full of remorse, and lamenting what had occurred as he tried to free himself from the mud and the waters, was approached by some fishermen who were stunned to have witnessed, in the place where the river water flowed into the sea, three fish, each with a little white disc in its mouth, resembling Communion Hosts. The priest immediatelyran to the church and returned to the river bank with another ciborium. He did everything in such a hurry, that he didn't even stop to ask himself if the fishermen's story was believable.

Great was his joy when he saw that the three prodigious fish were there, almost completely out of the water, lifting the Hosts, intact, with their mouths, like little trophies.

Commemorative tablet of the Miracle

He fell to his knees, and extending his chalice, prayed as he had never prayed before in his entire life; and thus, he saw the fish deposit the Hosts in the chalice, one after the other, and then dive and slither rapidly back into the water to disappear into the sea. Only at that moment did the priest notice that he was surrounded by a group of men and women who had witnessed the entire scene.

The fish place the Sacred Hosts in the chalice. The present fresco in the interior of the Parish of Almácera

The procession held every year during the Feast of Corpus Domini when the Miracle is commemorated

Today it is still possible to consult numerous documents testifying to the miracle. There even exists a small church, with two fish sculpted on the door, built on the site of the miracle, and two paintings reproducing the entire event.

Gospel Reflection
26th Sunday of Ordinary Time
The Parable of the Two Sons
Matthew 21:28-32

We read in this Sunday's Gospel how Jesus continued to teach His followers with another story set in a vineyard. Two sons had a choice to make. Their father had asked each of them to work in his vineyard. One son said no and then went and worked, while the other said yes but then didn't follow through. Which brother made the better choice, and why? Every day, we face choices in our lives—some are little, some are big. In all of our choices and decisions, we must consider God's Will. This means what God wants for us and for everyone in the world. Most of all, His Will is that we should be with Him in Heaven. We must make choices each day that match with God's plan for our lives. We should ask ourselves, "Which decision will be most Christ-like?" Let's choose to do God's Will so that we can live in eternal happiness with Him.

Activities:

- This week set a great example for your brothers and sisters or your classmates by following your parents' or teacher's "will."
- Sometimes, we have good "intentions" about doing the right thing but don't actually follow through on our plans. This week, when given the choice to do something to help a friend or family member, act immediately.
- If you forget or miss a chance to act in love, find a way to make it right once you remember.

2026 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

"Together, as one people, as brothers and sisters, let us walk towards God and love one another."
- Pope Leo XIV

SHARING THE GOSPEL WITH OTHERS

Dear Friends:

Your donation to the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports vocations to the priesthood and diaconate in our Diocese. It ensures that those who are looking to serve their parish and diocese have the resources and guidance they need to discern their call to service to provide spiritual nourishment to the people of our diocese.

Deacon O'Brien brings God's message of love, mercy, and hope to others.

"As a Deacon, I hope to revitalize the faith of others. I go to nursing homes and the residents hear the Word of God and receive the Eucharist. At wake services, when people have lost a loved one, I hope to revitalize their faith so that people know that they can call on and rely on God to help them through the difficult times. In happy times such as a baptism or a wedding, God is there for them for the rest of their life."

– Deacon O' Brien
