Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Daily Rosary

The Rosary is recited in the Church

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

(July 22, 1647-October 17, 1690)

Margaret Mary was chosen by Christ to arouse the Church to a realization of the love of God symbolized by the heart of Jesus.

Her early years were marked by sickness and a painful home situation. "The heaviest of my crosses was that I could do nothing to lighten the cross my mother was suffering." After considering marriage for some time, Margaret Mary entered the Order of the Visitation nuns at the age of 24.

A Visitation nun was "not to be extraordinary except by being ordinary," but the young nun was not to enjoy this anonymity. A fellow novice termed Margaret Mary humble, simple, and frank, but above all, kind and patient under sharp criticism and correction. She could not meditate in the formal way expected, though she tried her best to give up her "prayer of simplicity." Slow, quiet, and clumsy, she was assigned to help an infirmarian who was a bundle of energy.

On December 21, 1674, three years a nun, she received the first of her revelations. She felt "invested" with the presence of God, though always afraid of deceiving herself in such matters. The request of Christ was that his love for humankind be made evident through her.

During the next 13 months, Christ appeared to her at intervals. His human heart was to be the symbol of his divine-human love. By her own love Margaret Mary was to make up for the coldness and ingratitude of the world—by frequent and loving Holy Communion, especially on the first Friday of each month, and by an hour's vigil of prayer every Thursday night in memory of his agony and isolation in Gethsemane. He also asked that a feast of reparation be instituted.

Like all saints, Margaret Mary had to pay for her gift of holiness. Some of her own sisters were hostile. Theologians who were called in declared her visions delusions and suggested that she eat more heartily. Later, parents of children she taught called her an impostor, an unorthodox innovator. A new confessor, the Jesuit Claude de la Colombière, recognized her genuineness and supported her. Against her great resistance, Christ called her to be a sacrificial victim for the shortcomings of her own sisters, and to make this known.

After serving as novice mistress and assistant superior, Margaret Mary died at the age of 43, while being anointed. She said: "I need nothing but God, and to lose myself in the heart of Jesus."

Reflection

Our scientific-materialistic age cannot "prove" private revelations. Theologians, if pressed, admit that we do not have to believe in them. But it is impossible to deny the message Margaret Mary heralded: that God loves us with a passionate love. Her insistence on reparation and prayer and the reminder of final judgment should be sufficient to ward off superstition and superficiality in devotion to the Sacred Heart while preserving its deep Christian meaning.

All Saints Day

(Holy Day of Obligation)

Saturday Vigil, October 31st, 5 PM

Sunday, November 1st, 8 AM, 10 AM & 12:15 PM

ALL SOULS NOVENA OF MASSES

Envelopes to inscribe the deceased in the All Souls Novena of Masses are available in the rear of the church.

Mass Schedule for: All Souls Day
Monday, November 2nd:

8 AM All Souls Novena
7 PM All Souls Novena

Although not a holy day of obligation (like All Saint's Day) All Souls Day is a day to live and practice the teachings of our Catholic Faith. From the time of the Apostles, we are taught that souls are purified in Purgatory and that our prayers for those souls can and do shorten their time of waiting. On All Souls Day the Church, by the power of the Keys given to St. Peter to open and close the gates of heaven makes special graces available, a plenary indulgence, to assist the souls in Purgatory.

The plenary indulgence flows from the power Christ gave to the Popes through St. Peter, to "open and close" the gates of Paradise. It means that on the Feast of All Souls we may, by our prayers, obtain entry into heaven for a soul waiting in Purgatory. The requirements are that within a week of All Souls Day we receive the Sacrament of Penance and Holy Communion and on the Feast of All Souls itself at least make a visit to Church and offer five Our Fathers, Hail Mary's, Glory Be to the Father, and the Nicene Creed for the intentions of the Pope.

PRAYER OF ST. TERESA OF JESUS

(St. Teresa of Avila, Virgin & Doctor of the Church
October 15th)

Let nothing disturb you;
Let nothing frighten you.
All things are passing.
God never changes.
Patience obtains all things.
Nothing is wanting to him
Who possesses God.
God alone suffices.

For 36 Years, Her Only Nourishment Was The Holy Eucharist

TERESA NEUMANN

GERMANY, 1898-1962

Teresa Neumann: Stigmata on heart and hands (Medical Photograph, 1926)

Teresa dies at Konnesreuth 1962

Teresa Neumann was born in Konnersreuth Germany, on April 8th, 1898 from an extremely poor Catholic family. Her greatest ambition was to become a missionary in Africa but that was not possible as she was a victim of an accident at the age of 20 when a horrible fire broke out in a nearby plant and Teresa went to help and in the process of passing buckets of water to stop the flames, she got a horrible lesion in her spinal cord that caused a paralysis in both her legs and complete blindness. Teresa then passed her days in prayer, but one day her miraculous recovery occurred in the presence of Father Naber who wrote: "Teresa described a vision of a great light and an extraordinary, sweet voice that was asking her if she wished to be healed. Teresa gave the most surprising answer when she replied that to her it would not make any difference whether she would be healed, stay the way she was or even die, as long as it was the will of God. The mysterious voice told her that 'that very day she would receive a small joy; the healing of her infirmities, but that she would still have a lot of suffering to endure in her future.'"

For a little while, Teresa lived in fairly good health, but in 1926 her most important mystical experiences started and lasted until the day she died. She received the stigmata, and she began a complete fasting, with the Eucharist as her only nourishment. Father Naber, who administered Communion to Teresa every day, wrote: "In her, God's promised word is accomplished: 'My Flesh is real food and my Blood is a true drink'". Teresa offered the Lord her physical suffering - due to the loss of blood caused by the stigmata - that started every Thursday during the day when Jesus' Passion started, until Sunday, His Resurrection. This suffering was offered, through her intercession, for sinners that asked for help. Every time she would be called to a person's death bed, she would be witness to that soul's judgment, as it is usual to happen right after death. Ecclesiastical authorities performed many examinations in regard to Teresa's continuous fasting. Carl Strater, S.J., directed by the Bishop of Ratisbonne, studied and examined the life of the stigmatized Teresa and confirmed: "The significance of Teresa Neumann's fasting is to show the people of the world the value of the Holy Eucharist, to make the world understand that Christ is actually present in the bread of the Eucharist and that through the Holy Eucharist, physical life can actually be preserved."

Dear Parishioners,

We want to start by expressing gratitude for your unwavering support and generosity towards our church. Your contributions have been essential to our ability to continue carrying out our mission and serving the needs of our community.

We also want to take this opportunity to introduce our new e-giving platform, Vanco. This platform provides a secure and user-friendly way to give to our church online, and we are confident that it will make giving more convenient for many members of our congregation.

The link is available on our website, (www.sacredheartislandpark.com) under the GIVE tab. Please create an account on Vanco before contributing. This way you will create a transaction history for your tax receipt.

Whether you choose to give online or in person, your support is vital to the continued success of our church community. We are so grateful for your generosity and commitment to our shared mission.

Thank you again for all that you do.
Blessings,

Fr. John Tutoné, Pastor

Gospel Reflection
28th Sunday of Ordinary Time
The Parable of the Wedding Feast
Matthew 22:1-14

In today's Gospel, Jesus uses one of His favorite methods of explaining God's relationships with His sons and daughters…a parable. Each of you is a son or daughter of our Heavenly Father. In this story Jesus explains that few people accept God's invitation to His eternal banquet. Just as the king in the parable sent his servants to announce the wedding feast to the guests, so God sent many people to announce the kingdom of God. What is your response? Do you want to accept the invitation for the wedding feast of Heaven, or are you too busy? How can you say "yes'' to God's invitation today?

Activities:

- Every time we attend Mass, we participate in the banquet of the Eucharist. How can you as a family be more mindful of this?
- Who can you invite to the eternal banquet of Mass?
- Make your family's favorite meal for dinner. As you enjoy the delicious food, discuss as a family how the heavenly banquet is beyond imagination or comparison.

2026 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

"Together, as one people, as brothers and sisters, let us walk towards God and love one another."
- Pope Leo XIV

SHARING THE GOSPEL WITH OTHERS

Dear Friends:

Your donation to the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports vocations to the priesthood and diaconate in our Diocese. It ensures that those who are looking to serve their parish and diocese have the resources and guidance they need to discern their call to service to provide spiritual nourishment to the people of our diocese.

Deacon O'Brien brings God's message of love, mercy, and hope to others.

"As a Deacon, I hope to revitalize the faith of others. I go to nursing homes and the residents hear the Word of God and receive the Eucharist. At wake services, when people have lost a loved one, I hope to revitalize their faith so that people know that they can call on and rely on God to help them through the difficult times. In happy times such as a baptism or a wedding, God is there for them for the rest of their life."

– Deacon O' Brien
