– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Prayer Before Mass
Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Daily Rosary
The Rosary is recited in the Church

How do you feel when you are chosen to do something important? Honored, surprised, nervous? Some of the apostles must have felt as you do.

After spending much time in prayer, Jesus decided to choose 12 men, 12 rather unlikely candidates, who would be his apostles and proclaim the Kingdom of God to all people.

Simon the Zealot was one who was called. The Zealots were a Jewish group who believed that the promise of the Messiah meant a free and independent Jewish nation where they would never have to pay taxes to the Romans again. Some Zealots were also very concerned that the spiritual ideals of their religion be kept. But others in the group acted more like modern-day terrorists by raiding, killing, and inciting riots. Simon was known as "the zealot" to distinguish him from Simon Peter.

At the same time, Jesus called Jude Thaddeus, brother of James, most likely a fisherman by trade. Along with 10 other men, these two followed Jesus, lived with him, fled when he underwent his Passion, and rejoiced when he rose from the dead. At Pentecost they were filled with the Spirit and a burning desire to spread the Good News to all. Jude traveled to Mesopotamia to preach, and Simon went to Egypt. Eventually they both ended up in Persia, modern-day Iran. There they worked together evangelizing the people until they were both martyred. These two unlikely candidates for apostleship finally witnessed to the risen Lord with their lives.

Traditionally Saint Jude the Apostle is identified with the author of the Letter of Jude in the New Testament. He has also come to be known as the saint of hopeless causes.

Jesus, Savior of the world, sanctify your priest and sacred ministers.

Mass Schedule for:

All Saints Day

(Holy Day of Obligation)

Saturday Vigil, October 31st, 5 PM

Sunday, November 1st, 8 AM, 10 AM & 12:15 PM

All Souls Novena of Masses

Envelopes to inscribe the deceased in the All Souls Novena of Masses are available in the rear of the church.

Mass Schedule for: All Souls Day
Monday, November 2nd:

8 AM All Souls Novena
7 PM All Souls Novena

Although not a holy day of obligation (like All Saint's Day) All Souls Day is a day to live and practice the teachings of our Catholic Faith. From the time of the Apostles, we are taught that souls are purified in Purgatory and that our prayers for those souls can and do shorten their time of waiting. On All Souls Day the Church, by the power of the Keys given to St. Peter to open and close the gates of heaven makes special graces available, a plenary indulgence, to assist the souls in Purgatory.

The plenary indulgence flows from the power Christ gave to the Popes through St. Peter, to "open and close" the gates of Paradise. It means that on the Feast of All Souls we may, by our prayers, obtain entry into heaven for a soul waiting in Purgatory. The requirements are that within a week of All Souls Day we receive the Sacrament of Penance and Holy Communion and on the Feast of All Souls itself at least make a visit to Church and offer five Our Fathers, Hail Mary's, Glory Be to the Father, and the Nicene Creed for the intentions of the Pope*.*

- - - - - - - - - - - - - - -

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
And let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the Souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Confessions

In preparation for the All Souls' Day indulgence, Confessions will be heard Saturday, Oct. 31st at 4 PM. (Examination of Conscience is on next page.)

Examination of Conscience from the Ten Commandments

God gives us the Ten Commandments to show us how to live a happy, holy life. The Ten Commandments tell us what we should do and should not do. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you see any way that you did not keep the Ten Commandments.

First Commandment: "I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange gods before me."

Did I try to make God the most important thing in my life?
Did I act like other things, activities, or people are more important than God?
Did I spend time with God each day in prayer?
Did I thank God for the good things he has given me?
Did I receive Holy Communion with mortal sins that I have not confessed yet?

Second Commandment: "You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain."

Did I always use God's name with love and respect?
Did I use God's name out of anger or as a curse?
Did I speak badly about God, the saints, or any other holy person or thing?
Did I use bad language or curse words?

Third Commandment: "Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day."

Did I miss Mass on Sunday or a holy day of obligation on purpose without a good reason (like being sick or not having a ride)?
Did I complain about going to Mass?
Did I pay attention at Mass as well as I could? Did I say the responses, pray, and sing?
Did I fast (no food or drink except water) for one hour before receiving Holy Communion?
Did I rest on Sundays?

Fourth Commandment: "Honor your father and your mother."

Did I show love and respect to my parents or the adults who take care of me?
Did I disobey them? Did I get angry or talk back to them?
Did I try to be thankful for what my parents do for me?
Did I help my family at home? Did I complain about chores?
Did I argue or fight with my brothers or sisters? Am I kind to them?
Did I respect and obey other adults in charge (priests, nuns, teachers, police, etc.)?
Did I obey the rules at school?
Did I do my best on homework and other schoolwork?

Fifth Commandment: "You shall not kill."

Did I hurt anyone on purpose?
Did I make fun of others or call them names?
Did I lose my temper or get angry at anyone?
Did I not forgive someone?
Did I leave out anyone on purpose?
Did I talk badly about others or gossip?
Did I share what I can with others, especially those who have less than I do?
Did I try to take care of my body?

Sixth and Ninth Commandments: "You shall not commit adultery." "You shall not covet your neighbor's wife."

Did I try to treat my body and others' bodies with respect?
Did I think about disrespectful things on purpose?
Did I listen to or tell disrespectful jokes?
Did I look at disrespectful images, videos, TV shows, or movies?

Seventh and Tenth Commandments: "You shall not steal." "You shall not covet your neighbor's goods."

Did I steal anything?
Did I take something without permission? Did I purposely not return something?
Did I damage someone else's things?
Was I greedy or selfish?
Did I share what I can, especially with those who have less than I do?
Am I thankful for what I have?
Am I jealous of what others have or what they can do?

Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor."

Did I lie? Did I tell half the truth?
Did I blame others for something that I did?
Did I spread rumors about someone?
Did I tell secrets?
Did I cheat on schoolwork or in a game?
Did I keep my promises?
Did I keep silent when I should have said something?

Dear Parishioners,

We want to start by expressing gratitude for your unwavering support and generosity towards our church. Your contributions have been essential to our ability to continue carrying out our mission and serving the needs of our community.

We also want to take this opportunity to introduce our new e-giving platform, Vanco. This platform provides a secure and user-friendly way to give to our church online, and we are confident that it will make giving more convenient for many members of our congregation.

The link is available on our website, (www.sacredheartislandpark.com) under the GIVE tab. Please create an account on Vanco before contributing. This way you will create a transaction history for your tax receipt.

Whether you choose to give online or in person, your support is vital to the continued success of our church community. We are so grateful for your generosity and commitment to our shared mission.

Thank you again for all that you do.
Blessings,

Fr. John Tutoné, Pastor

Gospel Reflection
30th Sunday of Ordinary Time
The Greatest Commandment
Matthew 22:34-40

In today's Gospel, the leaders of Jesus' religious community try to trick Jesus by asking Him, "Which of the commandments is the greatest?" Before Jesus began His church, the Catholic Church, God had given His people three different types of laws. The moral laws (the Ten Commandments) were to last for all time, but the civil and ceremonial laws that guided the people were only necessary until Christ came. All of these laws added up to a lot, over 600 commandments! How was Jesus to pick just one? Because He is God, Jesus had the perfect response. The first and most important commandment, He said, is to love God with every part of you—body, mind, soul, strength, and heart. And the second commandment is to love your neighbor. These are still our two greatest commandments! God's Will for our lives is very simple: we must love God and others well.

Activities:

- Do you over-complicate the will of God? How can you love God more simply in your life? As a family?
- The story of Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque is an excellent example of a saint who loved God and her neighbor. Watch an animated video about her, "My Catholic Family – St. Margaret Mary," on EWTN's YouTube page.
- Pray the Second Joyful Mystery of the Rosary today and meditate on the Visitation, when Mary visited her pregnant cousin Elizabeth. How does Mary teach us to love our neighbor in this story?

Eucharistic Miracle of

SAINT JOHN OF THE ABBESSES

SPAIN, 1251

In 887, the Count Vifred, founded a monastery in the Pirenean region of Catalonia, around which, almost immediately, a village developed called even today "Saint John of the Abbesses" ("San Juan of the Abadesas"). Here a crucifix is preserved with a Host kept intact since 1251 imbedded in the forehead of the statue of Jesus.

In 1251 some artistic work in wood were done in the church of the monastery, depicting the deposition of Jesus from the cross: with the figures of Jesus and his mother Mary, Joseph of Arimathea, Nicodemus, Saint John the disciple Jesus loved, and the two thieves. These beautiful statues, saved from the destruction of the 1936 Spanish civil war, cause great emotion in many people because of their expression. Jesus' head especially, is impressively beautiful. When it was carved the artist made in his forehead a hole, approximately two and a half inches in diameter, with the idea of preserving the Eucharist in it. In 1251 someone put a consecrated host in there. But the memory of this was lost in time.

Only in 1426, while working to restore the statues, the hole in the forehead of the crucifix, was discovered, sealed by a small silver plaque. Inside, wrapped in a white linen cloth, the Host consecrated in 1251 was found, totally uncorrupted. Since then, that Host, known as "The Most Holy Mystery of Saint John of the Abbesses" is adored and visited by numerous pilgrims.

2026 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

"Together, as one people, as brothers and sisters, let us walk towards God and love one another."
- Pope Leo XIV

SHARING THE GOSPEL WITH OTHERS

Dear Friends:

Your donation to the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports vocations to the priesthood and diaconate in our Diocese. It ensures that those who are looking to serve their parish and diocese have the resources and guidance they need to discern their call to service to provide spiritual nourishment to the people of our diocese.

Deacon O'Brien brings God's message of love, mercy, and hope to others.

"As a Deacon, I hope to revitalize the faith of others. I go to nursing homes and the residents hear the Word of God and receive the Eucharist. At wake services, when people have lost a loved one, I hope to revitalize their faith so that people know that they can call on and rely on God to help them through the difficult times. In happy times such as a baptism or a wedding, God is there for them for the rest of their life."

– Deacon O' Brien
