Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit, please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Solemnity of All Saints

All Saints Day: The Feast Day to honor all the saints, known and unknown. In the early days Christians were accustomed to solemnize the anniversary of a martyr's death for Christ at the place of martyrdom. In the fourth century, neighboring dioceses began to interchange feasts, to transfer relics, to divide them, and to join in a common feast. Frequently groups of martyrs suffered on the same day, which naturally led to a joint commemoration. In the persecution of Diocletian, the number of martyrs became so great that a separate day could not be assigned to each. But the Church, feeling that every martyr should be venerated, appointed a common day for all. Gregory IV (827-844) extended the celebration on November 1st to the entire Church.

And, lo, I Beheld a great multitude which no man could number, standing before the throne, and in sight of the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands. And they cried with a loud voice, saying: Salvation to our God Who sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

Jesus, Savior of the world, sanctify your priest and sacred ministers.

Sunday, November 1st, 8 AM, 10 AM & 12:15 PM

All Souls Novena of Masses

Mass Schedule for: All Souls Day
Monday, November 2nd:

8 AM All Souls Novena
7 PM All Souls Novena

Although not a holy day of obligation (like All Saint's Day) All Souls Day is a day to live and practice the teachings of our Catholic Faith. From the time of the Apostles, we are taught that souls are purified in Purgatory and that our prayers for those souls can and do shorten their time of waiting. On All Souls Day the Church, by the power of the Keys given to St. Peter to open and close the gates of heaven makes special graces available, a plenary indulgence, to assist the souls in Purgatory.

The plenary indulgence flows from the power Christ gave to the Popes through St. Peter, to "open and close" the gates of Paradise. It means that on the Feast of All Souls we may, by our prayers, obtain entry into heaven for a soul waiting in Purgatory. The requirements are that within a week of All Souls Day we receive the Sacrament of Penance and Holy Communion and on the Feast of All Souls itself at least make a visit to Church and offer five Our Fathers, Hail Mary's, Glory Be to the Father, and the Nicene Creed for the intentions of the Pope.

- - - - - - - - - - - - - - -

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
And let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the Souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

UPDATED -Confessions

In preparation for the All Souls' Day indulgence, Confessions will be heard Saturday, Oct. 31st at 4 PM and During the Mass at 5 PM, as well as Sunday, Nov. 1 During the 8 AM, 10 AM & 12:15 PM Masses.

(Examination of Conscience is on next page.)

A GUIDE TO CONFESSION
(take this with you ... it's really okay)

BEFORE YOU GO
Examine your conscience, that is, reflect on what sins you've committed. To guide you, just Google "examination of conscience" and you'll find resources to help you. It's even all right to make a list to bring with you if that helps.

INTRODUCTION
When you come before the priest, begin by making the Sign of the Cross (praying the words out loud), and continue by saying, "Bless me, Father, I have sinned. It has been (how long) since my last confession. These are my sins..."

CONFESSION
List the sins you've committed that came to mind during your examination of conscience. Don't be too general ("I haven't been a good person"), but a lot of detail isn't necessary (you don't need to tell the whole story of how a sin came about). If you're not sure if something is a sin, ask the priest. This isn't counseling, so unless you ask, the priest likely won't give you advice. He'll just move on to ...

PENANCE
The priest will suggest something for you to do or pray as a response to God's mercy. You'll have to remember what this is and do it after the confession is over, so pay attention.

ACT OF CONTRITION
The priest will then ask you to pray out loud your "Act of Contrition," to demonstrate your sorrow for your sins: "My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy."

ABSOLUTION
Don't get up to leave after that prayer, because the best part is yet to come: The priest will extend his hands in your direction and he will pray the Prayer of Absolution: "God, the Father of Mercies, through the death and resurrection of his Son, has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins. Through the ministry of the Church, may God grant you pardon and peace. And I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen." You respond: "Amen."

CONCLUSION
The priest will then likely say something like, "God has freed you from your sin. Go in Peace." To which you can respond: "Thanks be to God." Don't forget to do your penance. If it is saying certain prayers, it's best to do it right away in the church before you forget.

Examination of Conscience from the Ten Commandments

God gives us the Ten Commandments to show us how to live a happy, holy life. The Ten Commandments tell us what we should do and should not do. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you see any way that you did not keep the Ten Commandments.

First Commandment: "I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange gods before me."

Did I try to make God the most important thing in my life?
Did I act like other things, activities, or people are more important than God?
Did I spend time with God each day in prayer?
Did I thank God for the good things he has given me?
Did I receive Holy Communion with mortal sins that I have not confessed yet?

Second Commandment: "You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain."

Did I always use God's name with love and respect?
Did I use God's name out of anger or as a curse?
Did I speak badly about God, the saints, or any other holy person or thing?
Did I use bad language or curse words?

Third Commandment: "Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day."

Did I miss Mass on Sunday or a holy day of obligation on purpose without a good reason (like being sick or not having a ride)?
Did I complain about going to Mass?
Did I pay attention at Mass as well as I could? Did I say the responses, pray, and sing?
Did I fast (no food or drink except water) for one hour before receiving Holy Communion?
Did I rest on Sundays?

Fourth Commandment: "Honor your father and your mother."

Did I show love and respect to my parents or the adults who take care of me?
Did I disobey them? Did I get angry or talk back to them?
Did I try to be thankful for what my parents do for me?
Did I help my family at home? Did I complain about chores?
Did I argue or fight with my brothers or sisters? Am I kind to them?
Did I respect and obey other adults in charge (priests, nuns, teachers, police, etc.)?
Did I obey the rules at school?
Did I do my best on homework and other schoolwork?

Fifth Commandment: "You shall not kill."

Did I hurt anyone on purpose?
Did I make fun of others or call them names?
Did I lose my temper or get angry at anyone?
Did I not forgive someone?
Did I leave out anyone on purpose?
Did I talk badly about others or gossip?
Did I share what I can with others, especially those who have less than I do?
Did I try to take care of my body?

Sixth and Ninth Commandments: "You shall not commit adultery." "You shall not covet your neighbor's wife."

Did I try to treat my body and others' bodies with respect?
Did I think about disrespectful things on purpose?
Did I listen to or tell disrespectful jokes?
Did I look at disrespectful images, videos, TV shows, or movies?

Seventh and Tenth Commandments: "You shall not steal." "You shall not covet your neighbor's goods."

Did I steal anything?
Did I take something without permission? Did I purposely not return something?
Did I damage someone else's things?
Was I greedy or selfish?
Did I share what I can, especially with those who have less than I do?
Am I thankful for what I have?
Am I jealous of what others have or what they can do?

Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor."

Did I lie? Did I tell half the truth?
Did I blame others for something that I did?
Did I spread rumors about someone?
Did I tell secrets?
Did I cheat on schoolwork or in a game?
Did I keep my promises?
Did I keep silent when I should have said something?

NINE DAY NOVENA TO THE HOLY SOULS
NOVEMBER 2ND – 10TH

"What you do for souls in Purgatory, you do for Me"
-Our Lord to St. Gertrude

Prayer for the Holy Souls
(By Sr. Marie de S. Pierre)

My Jesus, by the sorrows You suffered in Your agony in the Garden, in Your scourging and crowning with thorns, on the Way to Calvary, in Your crucifixion and death, have mercy on the souls in Purgatory and especially on those who are most forsaken. Deliver them from the torments they endure. Call them and admit them to Your most sweet embrace in Paradise. Amen.

Pray one Our Father, three Hail Mary's, and one Glory Be

O Bleeding Face, O Face Divine, may every adoration be Thine (3 times)

"If we want to deliver the Souls in Purgatory, we must always recommend them to our Blessed Mother, especially by offering Her the Rosary by which they are always comforted."
-St. Alphonsus de Liguori

Réquiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis. Requiescant in pace.

Novena Prayer

Mother of Mercy, I believe in the promises of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ; in the immortality of the soul, the resurrection of the body and in eternal life. I think today of my departed loved ones (Names. . .) and place them under your protection. Enfold them now with your peace. Lead them out of the valley of the shadow of death into the joyful companionship of the Most Blessed Trinity, with you dear Mother, and all the angels and saints. I pray for all the souls in purgatory, especially those who are most forgotten. May our Lord Jesus Christ wipe away every tear from their eyes and fill them with unending happiness. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

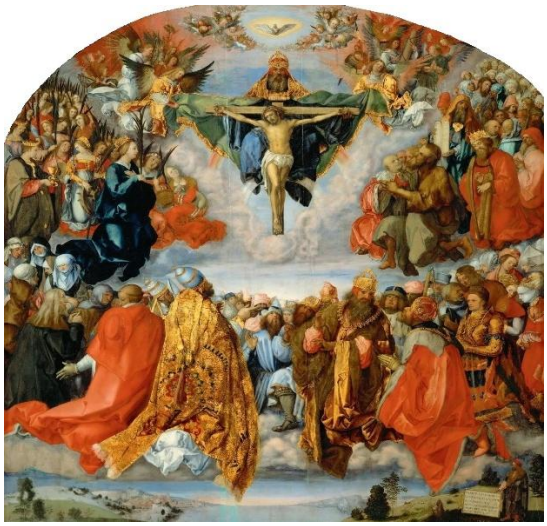
Gospel Reflection
31st Sunday of Ordinary Time
Solemnity of All Saints
Matthew 5:1-12a



Today we celebrate a special feast day for all those who are in heaven. This includes those people who have been canonized as Saints by the Church and all of those who have not been canonized. We honor all the people who have died and are in heaven now with God forever. This week's Gospel talks about the "Beatitudes." These important statements show us how living a blessed life looks differently than the way we usually think it would. Jesus shares with all who are listening that God loves all of His people. He will share His Kingdom with all who have faith, especially those who are not focused on things of this world but rather the things of Heaven. Jesus promises us that these people are not forgotten. Their reward will be in Heaven, not on earth. Jesus warns those of us whose hearts are focused on the things of the earth (money, possessions, popularity, having our own way). He tells us that none of these things can replace God's love. We must always put God first in our lives. When we put God first in our day-to-day life, we live our lives differently! As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to take care of our neighbors and live for God, not for the world.

Activities:

- Do you know someone who is suffering? What is one tangible way that you can help them this week?
- What earthly things do you focus on instead of the things of Heaven? How can you begin to change your heart?
- This week, wear "eternal vision" goggles. Instead of seeing things through the eyes of the world, view life as Jesus does.

Thanksgiving Dinner At Sacred Heart Parish

The tradition of Thanksgiving dinner at Sacred Heart
Is a gift of our parishioners in thanks to God
and in service to our community.
What we believe and how we believe is our motivation.
Pleasing God and bringing joy to others is our goal.

1. Who may come to dinner? ANYONE who wants to come and is able to come.
2. Suppose I am housebound? CALL US; if you are reasonably local (Island Park, Long Beach, Oceanside) We have parishioners who will deliver.
3. Can I donate a Turkey, etc.? YES: call us at (516) 432-0655 to coordinate drop offs.
4. Can I Volunteer? PARISHIONERS - YES

While we deeply appreciate the desire "to help," we can only coordinate a limited staff, sharing the same vision and goals and working in a very limited space. All are welcome to join us for dinner but if your search is to actively volunteer on Thanksgiving Day, might we suggest contacting one of the many local nursing homes or hospitals beforehand and inquiring about volunteering possibilities on that day and throughout the year.

Thanksgiving Day: Thursday, November 26, 2026

3. Parishioners Helping at Dinner
(Thanksgiving Day at 12:00 p.m.)

We DO NOT need kitchen or serving help on that day.
"Too many cooks spoil…"

We DO NEED hospitality help.
We want our guests to feel welcomed and valued.
Hospitality volunteers sit with guests, engage them in conversation and generally socialize. (Hint: Talk TV shows, sports, food – Not Politics)

This is a very important part of what we do. Watch what happens; people come in alone, will find a seat alone, eat alone and then leave. Our hospitality volunteers try to provide friendly company – which might well be more important than the meal.

4. Clean up
Come at 3 p.m. – Lots to do!!!

Thank you & God Bless.
